truly global conflict Andrew Preston author of Sword of the Spirit Shield of Faith A dramatic account of the plane journey undertaken by businessman turned maverick internationalist Wendell Willkie to rally US allies to the war effort Willkie's tour of a planet shrunk by aviation and war inspired him to challenge Americans to fight a rising tide of nationalism at home In August 1942 as the threat of fascism swept the world a charismatic Republican presidential contender boarded the Gulliver at Mitchel Airfield for a seven week journey around the world Wendell Willkie covered 31 000 miles as President Roosevelt's unofficial envoy He visited the battlefield in North Africa with General Montgomery debated a frosty de Gaulle in Beirut almost failed to deliver a letter to Stalin in Moscow and allowed himself to be seduced by Chiang Kai shek in China Through it all he was struck by the insistent demands for freedom across the world In One World the runaway bestseller he published on his return Willkie challenged Americans to resist the America first doctrine espoused by the war's domestic opponents and warned of the dangers of narrow nationalism He urged his fellow citizens to end colonialism and embrace equality of opportunity for every race and every nation With his radio broadcasts regularly drawing over 30 million listeners he was able to reach Americans directly in their homes His call for a more equitable and interconnected world electrified the nation until he was silenced abruptly by a series of heart attacks in 1944 With his death America lost its most effective globalist the man FDR referred to as Private Citizen Number One At a time when America first is again a rallying cry Willkie's message is at once chastening and inspiring a reminder that one world is more than a matter of supply chains and economics and that racism and nationalism have long been intertwined
