100 Statements about Molecules of Emotion Elizabeth Ging, 2013-02 In this book we have hand picked the most sophisticated unanticipated absorbing if not at times crackpot original and musing book reviews of Molecules of Emotion Why You Feel the Way You Feel Don't say we didn't warn you these reviews are known to shock with their unconventionality or intimacy Some may be startled by their biting sincerity others may be spellbound by their unbridled flights of fantasy Don't buy this book if 1 You don't have nerves of steel

2 You expect to get pregnant in the next five minutes 3 You've heard it all Every Move You Make Nikki Winston, 2003
We've long known that changing mental or emotional focus can help change physical state Think of doctors prescribing stress management to patients at risk for heart attack or consider athletes who visualize performances in order to make it happen It's mind over matter and it's something we readily accept Less well explored is the fact that the body-mind link is reciprocal Change your physical state and you can change your mental or emotional focus Change the way you move in deliberate carefully prescribed ways repattern your body and you can repattern your mind emotions and spirit in ways that let you live the life you know you can live the life you've always wanted to live Every Move You Make gives readers the practical tools for making these changes Each chapter addresses a different aspect of life that may need modification self image relationships sexuality career creativity stress and anxieties and compulsions The chapter then presents the author's proprietary four action process for repatterning body movements to fix the problem The process includes a specific sequence of movement exercises based on Taiji Qigong and Shintaido and illustrated in photographs plus complementary practices for intention visualization and vocal affirmation Since Feeling is First Jayne Rowe, 2005
