writing and language the role of the state in gender construction nationalism sexuality and prostitution New Women and Modern Girls feminisms comfort women and imperialism Accessibly written and comprehensive Gender in Modern East Asia is a much needed contribution to the study of the region A History of Modern East Asia Armstrong,2014-09-12 Offers a comprehensive view of East Asia including Southeast Asia as well as China Korea and Japan Examines East Asia within the context of global history building on scholarship in modern world history Women's Activism and "Second Wave" Feminism Barbara Molony,Jennifer Nelson,2017-02-09 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Women s Activism and Second Wave Feminism situates late 20th century feminisms within a global framework of women s activism Its chapters written by leading international scholars demonstrate how issues of heterogeneity transnationalism and intersectionality have transformed understandings of historical feminism It is no longer possible to imagine that feminism has ever fostered an unproblematic sisterhood among women blind to race ethnicity class sexuality nationality and citizenship status The chapters in this collection modify the wave metaphor in some cases and in others re periodize it By studying individual movements they collectively address several themes that advance our understandings of the history of feminism such as the rejection of hegemonic feminism by marginalized feminist groups transnational linkages among women s organizations transnational flows of ideas and transnational migration By analyzing practical activism the chapters in this volume produce new ways of theorizing feminism and new historical perspectives about the activist locations from which feminist politics emerged Including histories of feminisms in the United States Canada South Africa India France Russia Japan Korea Poland and Chile Women s Activism and Second Wave Feminism provides a truly global re appraisal of women s movements in the late 20th century Gender, Health, and History in Modern East Asia Angela Ki Che Leung,Izumi Nakayama,2017-11-22 This groundbreaking volume captures and analyzes the exhilarating and at times disorienting experience when scientists government officials educators and the general public in East Asia tried to come to terms with the introduction of Western biological and medical sciences to the region The nexus of gender and health is a compelling theme for this is an area in which private lives and personal characteristics encounter the interventions of public policies The nine empirically based studies by scholars of history of medicine sociology anthropology and STS science technology and society spanning Japan Korea China Taiwan and Hong Kong from the 1870s to the present demonstrate just how tightly concerns with gender and health have been woven into the enterprise of modernization and nation building throughout the long twentieth century The concepts of gender and health have become so commonly used that one might overlook that they are actually complicated notions with vexed histories even in their native contexts Transposing such terminologies into another historical or geographical dimension is fraught with problems and what makes the East Asian cases in this volume particularly illuminating is that they present concepts of gender and health in motion The studies show how individuals and societies made sense of modern scientific discourses on diseases body sex and reproduction redefining existing terms in the process and adopting novel ideas to face new challenges and demands Whether reviewing the comparative national histories of birth control debating early cases of transsexual surgery or highlighting the resurgence of traditional Asian medical commodities this volume provides accessible and productive studies on these intriguing topics in Asia Scholars of modern East Asia and indeed anyone concerned with the analysis of gender and health in light of intersecting postcolonial studies will find the book rewarding Rayna Rapp New York University A bold and important volume that explores the interweaving of gender body and modernity throughout East Asia With vivid articles on sexuality reproductive technologies and sexual identities the book opens multiple possibilities for how Asia as method can shine new light on persistent theoretical questions from biopower to biocitizenship Ruth Rogaski Vanderbilt University

Rethinking the Age of Emancipation Martin Baumeister, Philipp Lenhard, Ruth Nattermann, 2020-03-20 Since the end of the nineteenth century traditional historiography has emphasized the similarities between Italy and Germany as late nations including the parallel roles of great men such as Bismarck and Cavour Rethinking the Age of Emancipation aims at a critical reassessment of the development of these two late nations from a new and transnational perspective Essays by an international and interdisciplinary group of scholars examine the discursive relationships among nationalism war and emancipation as well as the ambiguous roles of historical protagonists with competing national political and religious loyalties
