Modernism and the Christian Faith John Alfred Faulkner, 1921
Faulkner, 1922 The Faith of Modernism Shailer Mathews, 1924 The Faith of Modernism Shailer Mathews, 2020-05-08

THE world is being reconstructed Can Christians aid A religion that cannot meet the creative needs of men and women is a social encumbrance A faith on the defensive is confessedly senile Aesthetic appeal vested wealth the inertia of organization may serve to hide its decadence but they cannot renew its youth True such a religion may serve as a form of social control like bread and the circus keeping an uneasy proletariat from revolt So it was in Rome when the rich restored the shrines of the Olympian gods So it was in France when Napoleon purveyed religion as a hope of heaven to a nation he refused political liberty So in our world there are those who would make the church only a means of quieting unrest But such hopes are already vain The proletariat like the rest of the world refuses to be quiet A religion that cannot meet the deepest longings of restless hearts that fears freedom of speech that distrusts social reconstruction that makes respectability its morality that would muzzle scientific inquiry will be ignored by a world that has outgrown it Faith and Modernity Philip Sampson, Vinay Samuel, Chris Sugden, 1994 The context for Christian mission is the world of modern technology and modern thought Yet how well do we really understand modernity This book sets out the ideas discussed at a conference of the Lausanne Committee on World Evangelisation held in Uppsala Sweden in 1993 The Case for Evangelical Modernism Cecil John Cadoux, 1938 Christianity and Modernism Francis Joseph Hall, 1924 Modernism, Christianity and Apocalypse , 2014-10-30 Modernism Christianity and Apocalypse stages an encounter between the fields of Modernism and Christianity and Apocalypse Studies The modernist impulse to make it new to transform and reform culture is an incipiently apocalyptic one poised between imaginative representations of an Old Era or civilization and the experimental promise of the New Christianity figures in formative tension with the new but its apocalyptic paradigms continued to impact modernist visions of cultural revitalization In three sections tracing a rough chronology from the late nineteenth century fin de siècle via interwar conflicts and the rise of political religions to post 1945 anxieties such as the Bomb this thematic is explored in nineteen far ranging scholarly contributions outlining a distinctive and fresh interdisciplinary field of study Tysonism, Modernism and the Christian Faith John Mockridge, 1924 Catholicism Contending with Modernity Darrell Jodock, 2000-06-22 This 2000 book is a case study in the ongoing struggle of Christianity to define its relationship to modernity examining representative Roman Catholic Modernists and anti Modernists It sketches the nineteenth century background of the Modernist crisis identifying the problems that the church was facing at the beginning of the twentieth century English Modernism, Its Origin, Methods, Aims Henry Dewsbury Alves Major, 1927 No detailed description available for English Modernism Christianity and the Postmodern Turn Myron B. Penner, 2005-07-01 In our post Cold War post colonial post Christian world Western culture is experiencing a dramatic shift Correspondingly says Myron Penner recent philosophy has taken a postmodern turn in which traditional concepts of reality truth language and knowledge have been radically altered if not discarded Here James K A Smith John Franke Merold Westphal Kevin Vanhoozer Douglas Geivett and R Scott Smith respond to the question What perils and or promises does the postmodern turn hold for the tasks of Christian thinkers Addressing topics such as the nature of rationality and biblical faith the relationship of language to reality and the impact of postmodern concerns on ethics this book presents a variety of positions in vigorous dialogue with each other

Modernism Alfred Leslie Lilley,1909

Mapping Postmodernism Robert C. Greer,2003-08-11 Helping you navigate the complex debate among Christians over postmodernism Robert C Greer maps four different paths marked out by Francis Schaeffer Karl Barth John Hick and George Lindbeck Ultimately he points to the true Subject who makes knowledge possible through the language of revelation and relationship with God

The Theological Project of Modernism Kevin W. Hector,2015-06-25 Modernism s theological project was an attempt to explain two things firstly how faith might enable persons to experience their lives as hanging together even in the face of disintegrating forces like injustice tragedy and luck and secondly how one could see such faith and so a life held together by it as self expressive Modern theologians such as Kant Schleiermacher Hegel Ritschl and Tillich thus offer accounts of how one s life would have to hang together such that one could identify with it of the oppositions which stand in the way of such hanging together of God as the one by whom oppositions are overcome such that one can have faith that one s life ultimately hangs together and of what such faith would have to be like in order for one to identify with it too So understood modern theology not only sheds light on faith s potential role in enabling persons to identify with their lives but stands in unexpected continuity with contemporary contextual theologies This book offers clear careful readings of modernism s key figures in order to explain their relevance to practical concerns and to contemporary understandings of faith

The Next Reformation Carl Raschke,2004-11 Demonstrates how to reconcile postmodernism with Christian faith

Modernism After the Death of God Stephen Kern,2017-11-22

Modernism After the Death of God explores the work of seven influential modernists Friedrich Nietzsche James Joyce D H Lawrence Andr Gide and Martin Heidegger criticized the destructive impact that they believed Christian sexual morality had had or threatened to have on their love life Although not a Christian Freud criticized the negative effect that Christian sexual morality had on his clinical subjects and on Western civilization while Virginia Woolf condemned how her society was sanctioned by a patriarchal Christian authority All seven worked to replace the loss or absence of Christian unity with non Christian unifying projects in their respective fields of philosophy psychiatry or literature The basic structure of their main contributions to modernist culture was a dynamic interaction of radical fragmentation necessitating radical unification that was always in process and never complete

Modern Religious Liberalism John Horsch,1925 This book is a most thoroughgoing exposure of the real nature of modernism It shows that the so called restatement of the Christian faith as defended by the modernists robs the Gospel of Christ of all its redemptive power The book presents unanswerable proofs taken from the writings of modernists themselves that the modernistic New Theology though parading in a Christian guise is antagonistic to the Scriptures that it is in fact the repudiation and denial of the Christian faith The book shows furthermore that modernistic theology is dishonest in its pretensions to historical Christianity cover The Christian Faith Under
