Statistical Abstract, 2016 Global Voices in Higher Education Susan Renes, 2017-06-07 Traveling from Zimbabwe to New Zealand and on to Ghana and the United States the voices of higher education are presented in a way only scholars from these regions can fully articulate and understand The changing world of higher education challenges all of those involved in very unique ways In Global Voices in Higher Education scholars from 10 different countries share their work describing not only their research but also the context in which their work exists This book allows the reader to travel with these scholars to their colleges and universities and discover areas of concern in higher education from around the globe

Emerging Technologies for Developing Countries Muthoni Masinde, Sabine Möbs, Antoine Bagula, 2024-06-28 This book constitutes the refereed conference proceedings of the 6th EAI International Conference on Emerging Technologies for Developing Countries AFRICATEK 2023 held in Arusha Tanzania during December 11-13 2023 The 11 full papers in this book were carefully reviewed and selected from 39 submissions They were organized in topical sections as follows smart infrastructure and urban management data security and digital technologies economic growth and social development health and well being and sustainability and environmental management Mission and Context Jione Havea, 2020-06-30 Mission is contrived from and performed over lived contexts but the visions that guide and drive mission are oftentimes blinded by power position protection and plenitude This collection visits those matters with queering attention to the shadows that empires cast over the contexts of mission and to the collusion and complicity of Christians and churches with empires past as in the case of Rome and present as in the case of the United States of America In the interests of those in mission fields who survived but continue to agonize under the burdens of empires the contributors to this work dare to re-vision the course and cause of mission Writing from minoritized settings in Africa Asia the Americas and Oceania the authors interweave the principles and practices of mission with the opportunities in decolonial theology and hermeneutics minoritized and migrant Christologies repatriation and the courage to get up and get out indigenous insights and wisdom mission archives stories of resistance and endurance in zones of contact and violence restless souls and returning spirits and life centered spiritual encountering In Mission and Context as with previous volumes in this series empires do not have the final word nor are they the final world

Language, Crime and Courts in Contemporary Africa and Beyond Russell H. Kaschula, Monwabisi K. Ralarala, Georgina Heydon, 2023-09-08 The research represented in this volume and in the series as a whole is intended to provide critical analyses and findings that can underpin the development of language policies practice guides and other resources that support a fair and accessible legal system However this will also require well developed teaching and research programmes so it is our intention that this volume will continue to support the growth of forensic linguistics in Southern African universities and nurture the next generation of scholars dedicated to forensic and legal linguistics This aim will be supported by the newly formed African Association of Forensic and Legal Linguists AAFL which will help to coordinate the study of forensic linguistics in Africa This book series Studies in Forensic and Legal Linguistics in Africa and Beyond Volumes I II III and IV continues to play an important role in bringing African forensic linguistic scholarship to a wider audience while simultaneously promoting the field amongst academic and legal institutions in Africa

Higher Education for and beyond the Sustainable Development Goals Tristan McCowan, 2019-08-29 This book analyses the role of the university in working towards the Sustainable Development Goals In contrast to the previous Millennium Development Goals higher education is seen to have a crucial role in this new agenda Yet how can the university fulfil these weighty expectations and are the dominant trends in higher education supporting or undermining this vision This book draws on the idea of the developmental university a model characterised by its porous boundaries with society and commitment to teaching research and community engagement in the public interest The author examines case studies from Latin America Africa and other regions to analyse how this model can be revived countering recent trends of marketisation status competition and unbundling The book also considers alternatives to the developmental model drawing on indigenous knowledge systems looking beyond the SDG framework to the creation of a new form of society This timely volume will be of interest and value to those working in the field of sustainable development and to students and scholars of comparative education international development and higher education studies

Regionalization of African Higher Education Jane Knight, Emnet Tadesse Woldegiorgis, 2017-04-17 Growth in the scope scale and importance of higher education regionalization should not be underestimated or ignored Africa like Asia Europe and Latin America is promoting deeper cooperation among higher education bodies and institutions across the continent and focusing more attention on Pan African and sub regional harmonization of policies and programmes This is the first book which brings together diverse scholars and policy experts to examine key aspects and challenges of African higher education regionalization Chapters examine the progress and prospects of core regionalization issues and strategies such as academic mobility quality assurance recognition of qualifications research centres and networks curriculum and competencies and regional academic programmes Other chapters discuss important themes such as the relationship between regionalization internationalization and Africanization historical antecedents and perspectives an analytical model to understand functional organizational and political approaches to Africa s higher education regionalization and the influence of the Bologna process on the African Union s Strategy for the Harmonization of Higher Education Programmes Together these chapters provide a comprehensive overview of efforts by the African Union sub regional higher education associations such as IUCEA SARUA and CAMES Pan African organizations and actors key research networks and centres of excellence and the involvement or dependence on external actors and funders especially from Europe Fundamentally the book asks the question whether higher education regionalization in Africa is more rhetoric than reality It discusses the progress to date on specific themes identifies historical political sustainability and funding challenges and concludes that while the impacts of regionalization efforts have not been fully realized there is cautious optimism for the future

From Southern Theory to Decolonizing Sociolinguistics Ana Deumert, Sinfree Makoni, 2023-07-07 This book which combines scholarly articles with interviews seeks to imagine a decolonized sociolinguistics All the chapters are firmly grounded in southern approaches to knowledge production focusing not only on epistemology but also on the complex relationship between epistemology and ontology The chapters address issues ranging from author positionality to the central theorists of a southern sociolinguistics and roam from the language classroom to the church in ways which invite us to begin to decolonize ourselves and rethink normative assumptions about everything from academic writing to research methods and language teaching The book provides scholars and teachers with inspiration for how to teach linguistics in ways that challenge colonial hegemonies and that allow one to do sociolinguistics otherwise It also makes a powerful argument that debates about decolonization southern theory and social justice are not just academic pursuits what is at stake is our future and how we imagine it
