Molly Mae Petunia and the Search for Catastrophe C. Oleksyn, 2014-12-08 When Molly loses the very special necklace that she has worn since she was born her entire world is turned upside down While searching for the necklace Molly slips into the wacky island of Forgotten where her only hope of survival is to find the lost necklace The island is over run with creatures that Molly could never imagine in her wildest dreams She runs from mumbling giants makes a friend with a sassy blue sheep and becomes the key in the survival of the entire island But just when she thinks she has found exactly what she needs to get home she finds herself in Moorsdon For every part of Forgotten that was colourful and exciting Moorsdon has equal parts of darkness and doom Between running from herds of huge angry swans tricking the evil cannibal bats and hiding from the boy with no eyes Molly searches for her way home Help comes from an unlikely source and once more she believes home is within reach Molly returns to Forgotten only to find it has turned to complete ruins since she left Through her determination to find a way home a path between Moorsdon and Forgotten is discovered Both worlds are reunited in a battle to determine who is allowed to return to Forgotten and who must remain in Moorsdon Molly finally has everything she could want in finding a home until a promised saviour offers her another option
