Each chapter comprises an introduction outlining the translation theory or theories illustrative texts with translations case studies a chapter summary and discussion points and exercises. New features in this fifth edition include New material to keep up with developments in research and practice this includes the sociology of translation chapter where a new case study employs a Bourdieusian approach there is also newly structured discussion on translation in the digital age and audiovisual and machine translation Revised discussion points and updated figures and tables New in chapter activities with links in the enhanced ebook to online materials and articles to encourage independent research An extensive updated companion website with video introductions and journal articles to accompany each chapter online exercises an interactive timeline weblinks and PowerPoint slides for teacher support This is a practical user friendly textbook ideal for students and researchers on courses in translation and translation studies

Translation and Violent Conflict Moira Inghilleri, Sue-Ann Harding, 2010-01-30 First Published in 2010 Translators and interpreters are frequently found at the centre of attempts to wage war or negotiate peace between opposing factions Translation and interpreting also serve a vital function in communicating a conflict locally and globally as interested parties attempt to legitimize their actions appeal for assistance and enlist support for their cause and the condemnation of their stated enemy The unavoidable independent exercises of judgement that interpreters and translators make through their participation in or re narration of a conflict and the decisions that go with them provide clear and strong evidence for the lead role in the construction of meanings and identities that interpreters and translators assume in situations of conflict irrespective of their historical or geopolitical setting This special issue of The Translator explores the role of translators and interpreters in a number of conflicts from the 20th century to the present Drawing on fictional and non fictional texts legal and peacekeeping settings and reports from war zones contributors to this volume explore the overlapping themes of mediation agency and ethics in relation to translators and interpreters as they negotiate the political social cultural linguistic and ethical factors that converge often dangerously in situations of armed conflict

Translating Feminism in China Zhongli Yu, 2015-06-05 This book explores translation of feminism in China through examining several Chinese translations of two typical feminist works

The Second Sex TSS Beauvoir 1949 1952 and The Vagina Monologues TVM Ensler 1998 TSS exposes the cultural construction of woman while TVM reveals the pervasiveness of sexual oppression toward women The female body and female sexuality including lesbian sexuality constitute a challenge to the Chinese translators due to cultural differences and sexuality still being a sensitive topic in China This book investigates from gender and feminist perspectives how TSS and TVM have been translated and received in China with special attention to how the translators meet the challenges Since translation is the gateway to the reception of feminism an examination of the translations should reveal the response to feminism of the translator as the first reader and gatekeeper and how feminism is translated both ideologically and technically in China The translators decisions are discussed within the social historical and political contexts Translating Feminism in China discusses among other issues Feminist Translation Practice Theory and Studies Translating the Female Body and Sexuality Translating Lesbianism Censorship Sexuality and Translation This book will be relevant to postgraduate students and researchers of translation studies It will also interest academics interested in feminism gender studies and Chinese literature and culture Zhongli Yu is Assistant Professor of Translation Studies at the University of Nottingham Ningbo China UNNC

Linguistic Issues and Quality Assessment of English-Arabic Audiovisual Translation Ahmad Khuddro, 2019-01-17 Due to a dearth of academic references in the area of English Arabic audiovisual translation AVT this book represents a unique resource in that it explores dubbing and subtitling into Arabic a topic hardly discussed among academics both in the Arab world and worldwide The book starts with some linguistic and audiovisual background and lays new foundations for a discussion about the similarities between the translation of drama texts and AVT It then moves on to highlight some grammatical syntactic semantic and functional challenges faced in subtitling with examples from various recent audiovisual material as deictics exophora idiomatic language register negation duality and plurality and subject predicate agreement in the target subtitled text The book s originality is manifest in its investigation of the obstacles encountered by new anonymous subtitlers by providing evidence in the form of genuine samples of their work The book concludes with some original subtitling quality assessment reports and presents effective strategies of subtitling Babel

, 1994 Eurocentrism, Qur'anic Translation and Decoloniality Ahd Othman, 2024-05-22 Eurocentrism Qur anic Translation and Decoloniality contributes to the understanding of Eurocentrism in Translation Studies and engages with the concept through the lens of scholarship on Arabic and Qur an translation This book calls for a deeper consideration of Eurocentrism as essential for several debates in the discipline including its scientific character and future development It claims that the angle of Arabic and Qur an translation is a valuable and nearly unexploited area where tensions in translation scholarship can play out in revealing ways The book also draws connections between Eurocentrism Qur an translation and decolonial thought in order to highlight decoloniality as a useful framework for imagining a post Eurocentric discipline The book will appeal to scholars and postgraduate students and researchers interested in Translation Studies particularly within the areas of Arabic Qur'anic Islamic and religious translation      Collocation - A Linguistic View and Didactic Aspects Yvonne Müller, 2008-03 Seminar paper from the year 2008 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 1.0 University of Paderborn 19 entries in the bibliography language English abstract The following paper deals with collocation The topic is investigated with a linguistic view but also didactic aspects should not be completely disregarded because collocation is a very important topic especially for teachers They have to know which word goes together with which term and how to explain these relationships to their pupils The collocational aspect will have its meaning explained Then a description of how collocations are used will follow The third part of this paper presents Benson's understanding of collocation He distinguishes between the collocations of different word classes The first section is about lexical collocations which contains collocations consisting of nouns verbs adverbs and adjectives Then the most common lexical combinations will have their meaning explained The first given type of collocation consists of verbs and nouns the second one deals with the collocations of adjectives and nouns and the third section examines collocations of verbs and adverbs while the last combination consists of adverbs and adjectives These combinations are the most common lexical collocations so others should be disregarded The different kinds of collocations are examined concerning their behaviour in a sentence and the possibility they suggest to be substituted After this examination the paper summarizes the structure of grammatical collocation In the next part Cowie's understanding of collocation is presented He distinguishes between restricted and open collocations which will be explained in this section The next part of the paper contains some aspects one has to take account of when collocations are translated Concerning translatability there are three different types of collocations collocations of complete partial and of no eq      Re-Reading Harry Potter Suman Gupta, 2009-06-25 This is the first extended text based analysis of the social and political implications of the Harry Potter phenomenon Arguments are primarily based on close readings of the first four Harry Potter books and the first two films in other words a text to world method is followed This study does not assume that the phenomenon concerns children alone or should be lightly dismissed as a matter of pure entertainment The amount of money media coverage and ideological unease involved indicates otherwise The first part provides a survey of responses both of general readers and critics to the Harry Potter books Some of the methodological decisions underlying this study itself are also explained here The second part examines the presentation of certain themes including gender race and desire in the Harry Potter books with a view to understanding how these may impinge on social and political concerns of our world      Across the Lines Michael Cronin, 2000 Across the Lines is a study of how language mediates experience across cultures with regard to travel The study is partly based on the books of various travel writers with no grasp of a foreign tongue their perceptions using interpreters guides      The Freemason and Masonic Illustrated.
