Mcsa 2015 Yearbook:

The Practice of Mission in Global Methodism David W. Scott, Darryl W. Stephens, 2021-04-19 This book brings together Methodist scholars and reflective practitioners from around the world to consider how emerging practices of mission and evangelism shape contemporary theologies of mission Engaging contemporary issues including migration nationalism climate change postcolonial contexts and the growth of the Methodist church in the Global South this book examines multiple forms of mission including evangelism education health and ministries of compassion A global group of contributors discusses mission as no longer primarily a Western activity but an enterprise of the entire church throughout the world This volume will be of interest to researchers studying missiology evangelism global Christianity and Methodism and to students of Methodism and mission

Religious Freedom and Religious Pluralism in Africa Pieter Coertzen, M Christian Green, Len Hansen, 2016-05-22 Africa continues to be a region with strong commitments to religious freedom and religious pluralism These however are rarely mere facts on the ground they are legal political social and theological projects that require considerable effort to realise This volume compiling the proceedings of the third annual conference of the African Consortium for Law and Religion Studies focuses on various issues which vastly effect the understanding of religious pluralism in Africa These include amongst others religious freedom as a human right the importance of managing religious pluralism and the permissibility of religious practice and observance in South African public schools

Faith-Based Health Justice Ville Päivänsalo, Ayesha Ahmad, George Zachariah, Mari Stenlund, 2021-02-16 In Faith Based Health Justice a stellar assembly of scholars mines critical insights into the promotion of health justice across Christian and Islamic faith traditions and beyond Contributors to the volume consider what health justice might mean today if developed in accordance with faith traditions whose commandment to care for the poor ill and marginalized lies at the core of their theology And what kind of transformation of both faith traditions and public policies would be needed in the face of the health justice challenges in our turbulent time Contributors to the volume come from a wide range of backgrounds and the result will be of interest to scholars and students in social ethics development studies global theology interreligious studies and global health as well as experts practitioners and policy makers in health and development work

The Spiritual Practices of South African Clergy Shaun Joynt, 2024-12-15 Clergy play an important role in the spiritual wellbeing of their congregation They are entrusted by the Great Shepherd to shepherd his flock which entails leading them to green pastures and still waters for example pastoral care and defending them from predatory animals for example heresy However clergy are sheep before they are shepherds and are also in need of the green pastures and still waters of meditation prayer fasting and Bible study These are known as inward spiritual disciplines exercises and have been practiced for centuries Spiritual Practices of South African Clergy State of the Clergy discusses these inward spiritual disciplines mental physical spiritual and social benefits The volume explores how clergy from five diverse denominations practice these specific inward spiritual disciplines They include the Methodist Netherdutch Pentecostal Presbyterian and Roman Catholic faith traditions This book focuses on clergy in the Global South and how they practice these spiritual disciplines within their context Clergy congregants academics and lay persons alike will benefit from the research conducted Missional Theology in Context Buhle Mpofu, 2025-10-30 This book discusses Missional Theology from trans disciplinary and diverse angles from which scholars unpack missional theologies which emerge out of their different contexts spanning from countries such as Thailand South Korea Taiwan Netherlands Switzerland Uganda South Africa and Zimbabwe This diversity of contexts and scholarly approaches underscore the notion of globality which is at the heart of subverting Empire explored through the intersecting themes of environmental justice social and economic justice addressing poverty migration challenges and dealing with all forms of discrimination such as gender and racism Central to the approach of this book is the notion that subverting Empire requires an urgent and transformational shift from traditional approaches to creative and missional approaches grounded on human dignity and life affirming values as opposed to the death dealing effects of the current global architecture which thrives on exploitation of the poor and marginalized communities Suid-Afrikaanse Hofverslae ,2015
