Let It Go Frozen Heets:

Pioneers in Pith Helmets Martha E. Green, 2008-08 Delicately laced through this delightfully written story is Martha Green's journey of joy from childhood to retirement. As a little girl, Martha was separated from her family and home and she felt like a sparrow alone upon the housetop and yet the joy of the Lord was her strength. Martha learns to trust her loving Lord to the point where she can say about a crisis it was one of those unique happenstances that our Heavenly Father had planned for a purpose unknown to us. Experience the highlights of Martha's 90 years including reunion with her birth family, courtship and marriage, call to Venezuela, birth of four children and the gift of another child and the joys of pioneer church planting. As you read, you will sense the love of a woman after God's own heart. The journey is summed up by Martha's words: love and joy, tears and praise mingled together in my heart. For 30 years, Martha Green joyfully served the Lord in Venezuela, South America with her husband Steve. Later they served on the island of Saint Vincent and then in Spain. At age 90, Martha has much to share about walking in the way the Lord establishes. I would not trade missionary ministry for any other vocation. Missionary life is a great challenge and blessing because we have such a wonderful message to share as we see the difference it can make in the lives of so many people. Who wouldn't want to be a missionary.

If the Creek Don't Rise Rita Williams, 2007-05-07 After her mother's death, the author, the a four year old was raised by her aunt, the last surviving African American widow of a Union soldier who spirited her sharecropping family out of the lynching South and reinvented them as ranch hands and hunting guides out West.

Tuning-In Ronald D. Gordon, PhD, 2018-02-27 Last night I finished reading all the rest of this lovely book. After each short chapter rich with wisdom and love, I just kept being moved by Ron Gordon's life path as poet, philosopher, educator and person centered practitioner. May this book soon be in many people's hands and homes and in classrooms and therapists' offices. Had Carl Rogers known Ron, I imagine he would rest well knowing what Ron has done with his work and beyond. Gay Swenson Barfield PhD. Gay Swenson Barfield along with Dr. Carl Rogers was founding codirector of the Carl Rogers Institute for Peace at the Center for Studies of the Person, La Jolla, California. She is currently in private practice as a licensed marriage and family therapist. This book is absolutely great. I'm thoroughly enjoying and benefiting from this brilliant book in countless ways. Bravo! This book will deepen and enrich your life.
