

Dear Daughters,

It has been my job to protect you and be your role model; to show you that hard work pays off and that you can be anything you want to be. I have tried to be an example of how a lady should look and behave, and I have certainly taught you that keeping a clean house, knowing how to cook and do laundry, and caring for your spouse does not make you inferior. But now, my dear daughters, I am being shoved out of the way. A new influence has taken over, one that I can't fight on my own.

You see, when I was a little girl, television was filled with shows that were funny, family friendly and positive. AND THEY SPOKE ENGLISH. (I know, hard to believe.) There were no women acting like fools, fighting each other and jumping over tables. There were no half naked, booty popping chicks on my screen, and certainly no women who allowed men to treat them badly. My examples were the teachers who gave me extra time after school because I had fallen behind in my math class, and the neighborhood families who would tell on me in a heartbeat if I was acting out of pocket, and my mom who worked two full time jobs to take care of me and make sure we had what we needed.

There was no Internet to fill my mind with garbage and distaste, pressing upon me glamorized ideas that, If you are woman, just take your clothes off because that is the fastest way to make money. Or post your surgically enhanced lady bits on Facebook and act as if getting the cover of King Magazine is the highlight of your career. Or that getting drunk is cute and funny...it's NOT. You see, as much as I have tried to shield you and teach you, the abundance of ignorance is like a tsunami, and I am helpless against it. So, I need your help. I need you to remember all the things I have taught you so that when you are bombarded with the images of this world, you can remind yourself that having class and self respect will take you further in life than any "Ratchetness" ever can.

Remember that you don't need anyone to define you! you don't need to accept anything that does not meet your standards and yes you must have standards and please always remember that your body is a temple and should be treated with honor and respect. Remember that if a man is not willing to wait for you, care for you, and stand up for you, then he doesn't deserve you. And when your young adult minds start to lapse because you want to be part of 'the group', and be accepted by your friends, remember that I raised you to be a leader not a follower.
