Critical Thinking in Moral Development, 2024-12-09 This book is for anyone interested in these topics whether they are veterans or relative newcomers to the field because the editors have assembled a stellar group of seventeen international contributors There are four sections devoted respectively to philosophical perspectives developmental psychology educational practices and assessment Each section consists of three initial chapters followed by a commentary that highlights notable themes and gives guidance for further inquiry Along with the Introduction and Epilogue contributed by the editors Daniel Fasko and Frank Fair the chapters develop themes such as the role of the ideas of Aristotle and Kant in shaping our moral development and educational practices Here readers will encounter informative discussions of among other things The 4Es of Virtuous Purpose The Rational Construction of Morality and Philosophy Goes to High School Readers are also led to consider Measures of Moral Identity The EQUIP Program and Assessing Value Clarity and Moral Blueprints The diversity of expertise and the international vantage points of the contributors make this book an informative overview for the expert and a useful introduction for the beginning student concerning the issues involved Contributors are Jennifer Baker Marvin W Berkowitz M Neil Browne Michael W Creane Juan P Dabdoub Frank Fair Daniel Fasko Jr John C Gibbs David Kaspar J n Knap k Martina Kosturkov Shane McLoughlin Chad Miller Benjamin Mitchell Yellin David Moshman G Felicitas Munzel Renee B Patrick Timothy S Reilly and Di You The Routledge Handbook of Media Use and Well-Being Leonard Reinecke, Mary Beth Oliver, 2016-06-23 The Routledge Handbook of Media Use and Well Being serves as the first international review of the current state of this fast developing area of research The volume provides a multifaceted perspective on the beneficial as well as the detrimental effects of media exposure on psychological health and well being As a first mover it will define the field of media use and well being and provide an essential resource for research and teaching in this area The volume is structured along four central considerations Processes presents concepts that provide a theoretical bridge between media use and well being such as psychological need satisfaction recovery from stress and strain self presentation and self enhancement or parasocial interactions with media characters providing a comprehensive understanding of the underlying processes that drive psychological health and well being through media Moderators examines both risk factors that promote negative effects on well being and protective factors that foster positive media effects Contexts bridges the gap between theory and real life by illustrating how media use can influence well being and satisfaction in very different life domains covering the full spectrum of everyday life by addressing the public private and work spheres Audiences takes a look at the influence of life phases and life situations on the interplay of media use and well being questioning whether various user groups differ with regard to the effects of media exposure Bringing together the expertise of outstanding international scholars from multiple disciplines including communication media psychology social psychology clinical psychology and media education this handbook sheds new light on the role of media in influencing and

affecting emotions      The Partisan Next Door Ethan C. Busby, Adam J. Howat, Jacob E. Rothschild, Richard M. Shafranek, 2021-09-29 In the United States politics has become tribal and personalized The influence of partisan divisions has extended beyond the political realm into everyday life affecting relationships and workplaces as well as the ballot box To help explain this trend we examine the stereotypes Americans have of ordinary Democrats and Republicans Using data from surveys experiments and Americans own words we explore the content of partisan stereotypes and find that they come in three main flavors parties as their own tribes coalitions of other tribes or vehicles for political issues These different stereotypes influence partisan conflict people who hold trait based stereotypes tend to display the highest levels of polarization while holding issue based stereotypes decreases polarization This finding suggests that reducing partisan conflict does not require downplaying partisan divisions but shifting the focus to political priorities rather than identity a turn to what we call responsible partisanship      The SAGE Encyclopedia of Educational Research, Measurement, and Evaluation Bruce B. Frey, 2018-01-29 This encyclopedia is the first major reference guide for students new to the field covering traditional areas while pointing the way to future developments      Language and Emotion. Volume 2 Gesine Lenore Schiewer, Jeanette Altarriba, Bee Chin Ng, 2022-11-07 The handbook Language and Emotion is intended to give a historical and systematic profile of the area It will aim to connect contemporary and historical theories approaches and applications and to cover eastern and western perspectives of language communication and emotion It will present all relevant aspects of language and emotion and thus contribute significantly to research in the field of linguistics and semiotics of emotion

COVID-19 and Existential Positive Psychology (PP2.0): The New Science of Self-Transcendence Paul T. P. Wong, Claude-Hélène Mayer, Gökmen Arslan, In the era of COVID 19 many people have suffered high levels of stress and mental health problems To cope with the widespread of suffering physical psychological social and economical the positive psychology of personal happiness is no longer the sole approach to examine personal wellbeing Other approaches such as Viktor Frankl s theory of self transcendence provide a promising framework for research and intervention on how to achieve resilience wellbeing and happiness through overcoming suffering and self transcendence The existential positive psychology of suffering complements the positive psychology of happiness which is championed by Martin Seligman as two equal halves of the circle of wellbeing and optimal mental health This Research Topic aims to examine the different approaches to Positive Psychology and their influence on individual wellbeing during the COVID 19 era One of the exciting development in the positive psychology of wellbeing is the mounting research on the adaptive benefits of negative emotions such as shame guilt and anger as well as the dialectical process of balancing negative and positive emotions As an example based on all the empirical research and Frankl s self transcendence model Wong has developed the existential positive psychology of suffering PP2 0 as the foundation for flourishing Here are a few main tenets of PP2 0 1 Life is suffering and a constant struggle throughout every stage of development 2 The search for self transcendence is a primary motive guided by the meaning mindset and mindful mindset 3 Wellbeing cannot be sustainable without overcoming and transforming suffering In this Research Topic we welcome diverse approaches discussing the following points The dialectic process of overcoming the challenges of every stage of development as necessary for personal growth and self transcendence The role of self transcendence in resilience virtue meaning and happiness The upside of negative emotions The new science of resilience based on cultivating the resilient mindset and character How to make the best use of suffering to achieve out potentials mental health
