Social Im/mobilities in Africa Joël Noret, 2019-11-08 Grounded in both theory and ethnography this volume insists on taking social positionality seriously when accounting for Africa's current age of polarizing wealth To this end the book advocates a multidimensional view of African societies in which social positions consist of a variety of intersecting social powers or capitals including wealth education social relationships religion ethnicity and others Accordingly the notion of social im/mobilities emphasizes the complexities of current changes taking us beyond the prism of a one dimensional social ladder for social moves cannot always be apprehended through the binaries of gains and losses

The Silenced Child Dr. Tanya Robinson, 2015-03-28 The Silenced Child is based on Dr Robinson's experiences It is not based on specific cases but a compilation of spellbinding experiences that were put together to create this book to give the child a voice It is based on facts but no one patient's case was used to portray these attention grabbing stories It was various fascinating experiences that were put together to explain what children go through during daily life This book reads as a journey of what children have gone through and is a collection of enthralling stories that shows the trauma our society is letting our children live by The book has been written to be an easy non complicated read that holds the reader by mesmerizing the reader with powerful stories about children's pain and suffering The intensity is balanced with how Dr Robinson from a young student to a well known name in the field of psychology had to cope with what she was faced with on a daily basis starting of as a 17 year old student at Stellenbosch University and through her years of therapy in private practice
