K9 Schutzhund Training Resi Gerritsen,Ruud Haak,2000 Professional Schutzhund trainers and instructors Resi Gerritsen and

Ruud Haak bring their years of knowledge and experience together in this book K9 Schutzhund Training Appropriate for training dogs for both protection work and for international sport dog certification and competition this is designed to be an especially practical training method Founded on the idea that effective training can only happen when a good bond and good communication exist between handler and dog this method allows individual handler dog teams to progress at their own speed Different breeds and individual dogs may require different lengths of time and repetition to effectively learn to perform the exercises contained in this book While many trainers claim a dog can be trained to perform to this level in only a few weeks the authors show that effective long lasting results can only be achieved with time and patience The three sections of this book focus on tracking obedience and protection

Decoys and Aggression Stephen A. Mackenzie, 1996 A good decoy needs to be an expert in canine communication and needs to know how to use this language to stimulate aggression in the dog This book explains step by step how to understand the canine paralanguage and how to use your own body to communicate with the dog It then explains the different types of natural dog aggression and how to use its own language to trigger the useful types without being abusive to the dog Decoys and Aggression also describes drills designed to develop skill in the decoy Some are designed to be conducted without dogs until the human demonstrates enough body control to work with a live animal without injuring the dog or himself This book is the first to combine inter species communication skills with the specific types of aggression known to be useful to police dog trainers As such it is essential reading for all decoys instructors and students alike as well as for K9 personnel handlers and trainers
