

Effect of Parents Divorce on Children, Adolescents and Adults

In society broken families have been always on humans' lives. Divorce is the major cause why family is broken apart that is a common thing in today's life. However, in some cases divorces can be the only solution to bring stability, be on peace, and be happy each one another. Divorce is the last decision that needs to be taken as a couple, because it can be bring consequences to the whole family. Annulment is a legal dissolution of a marriage by a court in order to dissolve an irremediably broken marriage. In this article will go in depth in each stage where children, adolescents, and even the parents can have some problems that may affect in their long-term growth when it comes to divorce.

In the article, "Wilkinson & Finkbeiner Family Law Attorney's" said, "As of 2016, both marriages rates and divorce rates in the U.S. are decreasing, the divorce rate in the U.S. is 3.2 per 1,000 population." This demonstrate that people divorce frequently, but most of the women are the ones that want to separate from her husband. Divorce it can be a massive change into the life of a boy or girl no matter the age of the individuals most of the time they present the same effects when parents are separating.

There are the ones who are witness of how the love on their parents had been lost, how they fight every night, ear them saying "I don't want to spend more time by your side" for both of their parents. They start to begin thinking why dad and mom are talking bad to each other, when they remember that both of their parents one day they were in love and saying beautiful complements to one another.

In this article name "Psychology Today" by Carl E. Pickhardt who has a Ph.D. in Psychologist states, "Having parents break their marriage commitment, adjusting to going back and forth between two different households, and the daily absence of one parent while living with the other." All of these creates a challenging circumstance within a new family, it significantly changes children life from what was before.

Carl E. Pickhardt states, "Convincing a young child of the permanence of divorce can be hard when his intense longing fantasizes that somehow, some way, mom and dad will be living back together again someday." This show that as a young child can be hard to see their parents separate because they are holding hope for one day they will be reunited together and live happy after, but in reality, that's not true.

When they become adolescents, children tend to develop some kind of resentment towards one parent or in some cases towards both of them. In an adolescent can realize more quickly and accept the finality of his unwelcome family had change. When parents are currently getting a divorce a big error they do are that still hang out, when there is a holiday they all came together, like there were family.
