Enchanted Love Marianne Williamson, 2013-12-17 Three of Marianne Williamson's previous bestsellers A Return to Love, A Woman's Worth and Illuminata explored the issue of relationships. Now in this deeply personal collection of essays, prayers and self-reflection, she turns to romantic love. In Illuminata, Williamson wrote that we experience God to the extent to which we love, forgive and focus on the good in others and ourselves. Now in Enchanted Love, she writes that enchanted partnership begins with the conscious understanding on the part of two people that the purpose of their relationship is not so much material as spiritual and the internal skills demanded by it are prodigious. High romance, she says, is not about past or future. It is not about practicality. It is not about society or worldly routines. It is an audacious ride to the center of what is at the heart of every person. It is a bold and masterful inquiry into what two people really are and how we might become while still on earth, the angels who reside within us.

Literature and Humanitarian Reform in the Civil War Era Gregory Eiselein, 1996-12-22 This volume presents a reasonable, fresh and well-researched reading of several key texts in American studies. Journal of the American Studies Association of Texas. During the Civil War, a crisis erupted in philanthropy that dramatically changed humanitarian theories and demanded new approaches to humanitarian work. Certain writer-activists began to advocate an eccentric benevolence, a type of philanthropy that would undo the distinction between the powerful bestowers of benevolence and the weaker folks who receive it. Among the figures discussed are the anti-philanthropic Henry David Thoreau and the dangerously philanthropic John Brown.

The Law of Divine Compensation revered spiritual guide Marianne Williamson teaches how with faith in God's promise of love and abundance for all we need never fear the future. There are two realms that we have the ability to inhabit: the physical realm and the spiritual realm. In the physical realm we find ourselves stressed by debt, unemployment, health bills, and more. While these fears are real, we don't have to find ourselves stuck there. Instead, we can enter the spiritual realm where God has promised to make abundance and prosperity available to us all. We do not need to be worried; we do not need to be preoccupied with our current financial situation; we do not need to fear the future. We just need to have the right mindset, the right faith, that the power of God can and will work with the universe to produce miracles in our lives. If we live our lives to the best of our abilities, God will work with the universe to help give us everything we need.
