

Government & the Economy

Time Needed: One class period

Materials Needed:

Student worksheets

Scissors and glue or tape

Power Point with projector (optional)

Copy Instructions:

Reading (2 pages; class set)

Review Worksheet (1 page; class set)

Graphic Organizer (2 pages side by side;

1 organizer per pair or trio of students)

Graphic Organizer Directions (1/2 page;

1 per pair or trio)

Learning Objectives. Students will be able to:

- Compare the government's role in free market, command, and mixed economies.
- Analyze the role of consumers, private producers, and the government in the U.S. mixed economy.
- Explain the effects of government policies on the free market.
- Describe how government policies allow either free or restricted trade.
- Identify U.S. laws and regulations adopted to promote economic competition.
- Identify U.S. laws protecting consumer rights and avenues of recourse.

STEP BY STEP

- ☐ ANTICIPATE by asking students if they've ever seen an ad for cell phone service. What do they think makes one cell phone provider better than another? Then ask if they think the government ever gets involved in cell phone service. They likely won't know, but ask them to guess how the government might get involved.
- ☐ DISTRIBUTE the reading page to the class.
- ☐ READ the page with the class, pausing to discuss as appropriate.
- ☐ CHECK for understanding by doing the True/False active participation activity. Either follow the directions on the Active Participation Guide or run the Power Point.
- ☐ PAIR students together or put them in groups of three. (This activity is not designed for groups of more than three.)
- ☐ DISTRIBUTE the scissors and glue, one set of directions, and one two-page graphic organizer to each pair or trio.
- ☐ REVIEW the directions to make sure students understand what to do.
- ☐ ALLOW students to complete the graphic organizer.
- ☐ GIVE the review worksheet to those who finish (and ultimately to all students).
- ☐ REVIEW the answers to the graphic organizer activity as a class, either out loud or using the second part of the Power Point. If you have an interactive white board, you can also use the Power Point to fill in the graphic organizer together as a class.
- ☐ ALLOW students to work on the review worksheet if there's time.
- ☐ CLOSE by asking students to silently picture the graphic organizer in their minds. What were the three main categories? (government, consumers, and producers) What were the two main functions of government? (protect consumers and protect competition) Who were the consumers? (you!)
