Timothy James Lyons, 1979 The Cinema of Francesco Rosi Gaetana Marrone, 2020-10-16 Francesco Rosi is one of the great realist artists of post war Italian indeed post war world cinema In this book author Gaetana Marrone explores the rich visual language in which the Neapolitan filmmaker expresses the cultural icons that constitute his style and images Over the years Rosi has offered us films that trace an intricate path between the real and the fictive the factual and the imagined His films show an extraordinarily consistent formal balance while representing historical events as social emblems that examine shape and reflect the national self They rely on a labyrinthine narrative structure in which the sense of an enigma replaces the unidirectional path leading ineluctably to a designated end and solution Rosi s logical investigations are conducted by an omniscient eye and translated into a cinematic approach that embraces the details of material reality with the panoramic perspective of a dispassionate observer This book offers intertextual analyses within such fields as history politics literature and photography along with production information gleaned from Rosi s personal archives and interviews It examines Rosi s creative use of film as document and as spectacle It is also a study of the specific cinematic techniques that characterize Rosi s work and that visually compositionally express his vision of history and the elusive truth of past and present social and political realities Italy and the Ecological Imagination: Ecocritical Theories and Practices Damiano Benvegnù, Matteo Gilebbi, 2022-10-04

What can Italy teach us about our relationships with the nonhuman world in the current socio environmental crisis Italy and the Ecological Imagination Ecocritical Theories and Practices focuses on how Italian writers activists visual artists and philosophers engage with real and fictional environments and how their engagements reflect critique and animate the approach that Italian culture has had toward the physical environment and its ecology since late antiquity Through a comparative and interdisciplinary approach the essays collected in this volume explore topics including climate change environmental justice animal ethics and socio environmental degradation to provide a cogent analysis of how Italian ecological narratives fit within the current transnational debate occurring in the Environmental Humanities The aim of Italy and the Ecological Imagination is thus to explore non anthropocentric modes of thinking and interacting with the nonhuman world The goal is to provide accounts of how Italian historical records have potentially shaped our environmental imagination and how contemporary Italian authors are developing approaches beyond humanism in order to raise questions about the role of humans in a possible or potentially post natural world Ultimately the volume will offer a critical map of Italian contributions to our contemporary investigation of the relationships between human and nonhuman habitats and communities The New Records ,1972 Decca Group Records & Tapes Main Catalogue Decca Record Company,1979
