Ollington,2008 If the future of any society can be pinpointed it is with the teachers who help form the citizens of tomorrow Sometimes their impact is equal to the parents and sometimes surpasses it by not a small measure This book tackles teaching Strategies Innovations and Problem Solving as the focal points in teaching Challenges of Quality Education in Sub-Saharan African Countries D. N. Sifuna,Nobuhide Sawamura,2010 Quality is at the heart of all education systems as good quality teaching and learning environments ensure effective learning outcomes Quality influences what students learn how well they learn and what benefits they draw from their education The quest to ensure that students achieve decent learning outcomes and acquire values and skills that help them play a positive role in their societies is an issue on the policy agenda of nearly every country As many world governments struggle to expand particularly basic education they also face the challenge of ensuring that students stay in school long enough to acquire the knowledge they need to cope in a rapidly changing world The purpose of this book is therefore to profile some aspects of education quality in the African education systems and highlight key policies for improving the teaching and learning outcomes The book is also intended to provide basic information to scholars who are interested in studying education in the Sub Saharan African region To enable users understand and appreciate developments trends and changes that have taken place in the education systems for most chapters the book deliberately adopts a historical approach which leads to some focus on developments which date back to the colonial period in Africa Education in Comparative Perspective Bradshaw,2021-11-01 The 9 articles in this volume look at a variety of educational issues around the world and examine what they say about current theories Papers discuss critical substantive issues such as the role of the state in the educational process the importance of female education in the development process the influence of a distinctive Asian model of education on the Asian economic miracle and vocational training systems All papers relate substantive processes to theory in some way and are explicitly comparative either by relating at least two countries or by making broader points in the fields of education and sociology Together they cover topics and cases throughout different regions of the world including Africa Asia Latin America and Europe as well as the United States
