Czech (& Central European) Yearbook of Arbitration - Borders of Procedural and Substantive Law in Arbitral Proceedings - 2013 Alexander J. Bělohávek, Filip Cerný, Naděžda Rozehnalova, 2013-03-01 The Czech Yearbooks Project for the moment made up of the Czech Yearbook of International Law and the Czech Central European Yearbook of Arbitration began with the idea to create an open platform for presenting the development of both legal theory and legal practice in Central and Eastern Europe and the approximation thereof to readers worldwide This platform should serve as an open forum for interested scholars writers and prospective students as well as practitioners for the exchange of different approaches to problems being analyzed by authors from different jurisdictions and therefore providing interesting insight into issues being dealt with differently in many different countries The Czech Central European Yearbook of Arbitration the younger twin project within the Czech Yearbooks primarily focuses on the problematic of arbitration from both the national and international perspective The use of arbitration as a method of dispute resolution continues to increase in importance Throughout Central and Eastern Europe arbitration is viewed as being progressive due to its practical aspects and to its meeting the needs of specialists in certain practice areas Central and Eastern Europe the primary but not exclusive focus of this project is steeped in the Roman tradition of continental Europe in which arbitration is based on the autonomy of the parties and on informal procedures This classical approach is somewhat different from the principles on which the system of arbitration in common law countries is based Despite similarities among countries in the region arbitration in Central and Eastern Europe represents a highly particularized and fragmented system One shortcoming in the use of arbitration in Central and Eastern Europe is the absence of comparative standards or a baseline that would facilitate the identification of commonalities and differences in individual countries and help resolve problems that are common throughout the region The CYArb project aims to address this issue and provide a forum for comparisons of arbitration practice and doctrine in countries within the region and in relation to practices internationally It sheds light on both practical and academic aspects within these countries and compares those approaches to broader European and international practices This project will also foster a broad exchange of legal research and other information on the subject The third volume of the CYArb focuses on the blurry area which borders the procedural and substantial law Editors being motivated with an endeavour to provide the readers with complex insight into the problematic invited authors of Civil same as Common law jurisdictions to provide their insight and analysis on the problems of i e mandatory provisions of procedural same as substantive law issues of application of law in arbitration adjudication according to the ex aequo et bono principles issues of the burden and standard of proof and others The issues are presented on highly comparative basis provided mostly by practitioners who are simultaneously involved in academic activities The book is divided into four sections The backbone sections encompass the doctrinal articles of the authors same as case law analysis of the domestic courts from the region relating to the topic covering the case law of

Constitutional General same as Arbitral courts of the countries from the Central European Region The rest of the book covers the news in the arbitration area same as interesting arbitration events or published articles and books of the authors from the region The new volume of the The Czech Central European Yearbook of Arbitration Borders of Procedural and Substantive Law in Arbitral Proceedings Civil versus Common Law Perspectives brings useful resource for everyone who is dealing with arbitration in all of its aspects be it an academic practitioner law or international relations student who seeks global compendium on the issue including an overlap to economic and politic aspects of the problematic

Region-Building in Southern Africa Chris Saunders, Gwinyayi Albert Dzinesa, Dawn Nagar, 2013-07-04 How successful have Southern African states been in dealing with the major issues that have faced the region in recent years What could be done to produce more cohesive and effective region building in Southern Africa In this original and wide ranging volume which draws on an interdisciplinary team of mainly African and African based specialists the key political socio economic and security challenges facing Southern Africa today are addressed These include the various issues confronting the Southern African Development Community SADC and its institutions such as HIV AIDS migration and xenophobia land grabbing and climate change and the role of the main external actors involved with the region including the United Nations the European Union the United States and China The book also looks at the Southern African Customs Union and Southern African Development Finance Institutions including the Development Bank of Southern Africa and Industrial Development Corporation and issues of gender and peacebuilding In doing so the book goes to the heart of analyzing the effectiveness of SADC and other regional organisation suggesting how region building in Southern Africa may be compared with similar attempts elsewhere in Africa and other parts of the world

Financial Justice Larry Kirsch, Robert N. Mayer, 2013-05-09 This provocative and accessible narrative recounts the inside story of how a broad based people s campaign was mobilized and subsequently succeeded in pushing Congress to create a consumer financial regulator with clout What would Congress do if anything to tame Wall Street and the nation s lenders following the financial meltdown of 2008 This book tells the true story of how an alliance of consumer civil rights labor fair lending and other progressive groups emerged to effectively challenge Wall Street and its official protectors and to win substantial new legislative reforms actions that resulted in the Dodd Frank Act and its path breaking Consumer Financial Protection Bureau CFPB Based largely on in depth interviews with the leading activists involved in the campaign Financial Justice The People s Campaign to Stop Lender Abuse taps into the world of contemporary citizen movements to present evidence into the conditions that determine the success and failure of social movement campaigns It goes well beyond general global variables such as effective management to show how the formal and informal rules adopted by a campaign can serve to preclude fragmentation and incoherence

Recent Developments in the South China Sea Dispute Wu Shicun, Nong Hong, 2014-05-30 The South China Sea region contains potentially huge deposits of petroleum and natural gas important shipping lanes and fishing areas and is subject to a number of maritime territorial disputes This edited volume analyzes the most recent development in the South China Sea dispute looking at the positions taken by China the ASEAN countries and the US In recent years maritime joint development zones have emerged as an important means to overcome deadlock in relation to maritime jurisdictional claims This book tests the applicability of joint development regime in this region and explores the prospect of joint development of resources as a way to successfully manage the conflict in the South China Sea Eminent scholars in the field of South China Sea studies have contributed original chapters to the volume covering such issues as the legal framework for joint development how joint development might work in practice the challenges faced by and the prospects arising from joint development and the way forward for the region

BRICS and International Tax Law Peter Antony Wilson, 2016-04-24 With the ongoing expansion of outbound foreign direct investment FDI in the countries representing the BRICS economic bloc Brazil Russia India China and South Africa and with all of them at the same time listed among the top seven countries plagued by tax evasion and avoidance in the guise of illicit out flows the five governments both individually and through cooperative initiatives have devised new international tax strategies that are proving to be of great interest and value to other countries both developing and developed The core of these strategies addresses the necessity of stemming the out flow of revenue while strongly supporting FDI both inbound and outbound while complying with international obligations including those arising from human rights laws This book is the first in depth commentary on this new and evolving area of international tax law The detailed analysis covers the entire field of BRICS international tax law considering topics such as the following information exchange procedures and pitfalls response to the OECD's Base Erosion and Profit Sharing BEPS initiative role of bilateral and multilateral double taxation conventions including the Multilateral Instrument and the Bilateral Investment Treaties thin capitalization transfer pricing controlled foreign corporation rules shortcomings related to authorities limited manpower international audit and investigation procedures the BRICS approach to residence and mandatory and binding arbitration and the BRICS approach to shaping the developing world's international tax system Notably the author personally conducted interviews with senior international representatives of the BRICS tax authorities as well as with leading BRICS academics and practitioners Tax cases together with human rights and investment cases and administrative guidelines in all five countries are also included in the analysis The study concludes with recommendations for improving each of the five countries tax law and procedures especially in the area of dispute resolution The author's goal is to extend the existing body of knowledge of the BRICS international tax laws in order to assist in developing an understanding of the BRICS approach to dealing with evasion and avoidance an approach which facilitates both outbound and inbound FDI simplifies tax authority administration and establishes a basis for resolving international disputes which is compatible with sovereignty In achieving this objective the author has produced a major work that is of immeasurable value to tax advisers government and governance officials academics and researchers both in developing international taxation strategies and in helping to resolve
