Mending Nazi Uniforms:

Mending Nazi Uniforms Gisela R. Martin, 2014-11-02 A young Jewish girl survives the Nazi regime while living in Berlin. Her life before WWII was tragic; the war years were devastating. With a strong will to survive and great hope for a future in America, she navigated with luck and circumstance one of the darkest periods of human history. Now at the age of 85, she puts pen to paper to finally tell her story. Heroines, Rescuers, Rabbis, Spies Sarah Silberstein Swartz, 2022-10-18 Discover nine ordinary women who took extraordinary measures to save lives during the Holocaust, resisting terror and torture while undercover or in hiding in concentration camps, in forests, and in exile. With compassion and admiration, author Sarah Silberstein Swartz paints portraits of women who stood up for themselves and others in dangerous times. Overlooked by history, they leapt from fear to action with bravery that deserves recognition. Flares of Memory Anita Brostoff, 2002-11-21 In a series of writing workshops at the Holocaust Center of Pittsburgh, survivors who were children or teens during World War II assembled to remember the pivotal moments in which their lives were irreparably changed by the Nazis. These flares of memory preserve the voices of over forty Jews from throughout Europe who experienced a history that cannot be forgotten. Ninety-two brief vignettes, arranged both chronologically and thematically, recreate the disbelief and chaos that ensued as families were separated, political rights were abolished, and synagogues and Jewish businesses were destroyed. Survivors remember the daily humiliation, the quiet heroes among their friends, and the painful abandonment by neighbors as Jews were restricted to ghettos, forced to don yellow stars, and loaded like cattle into trains. Vivid memories of hunger, disease, and a daily existence dependent on cruel luck provide penetrating testimonies to the ruthlessness of the Nazi killing machine, yet they also bear witness to the resilience and fortitude of individual souls bombarded by evil. I don't think that there will be many readers who will be able to put this book down. Jerome Chanes, National Foundation for Jewish Culture. Family Treasures Lost & Found Karen A. Frenkel, 2025-03-12 How do you shatter the silence that muffles family stories when those who knew what happened are gone? In Family Treasures Lost and Found, journalist and daughter of Holocaust survivors Karen A. Frenkel investigates her parents' unspoken WWII stories. Readers accompany Frenkel on her quest and discovery of how her resourceful parents survived on the run from the Nazis. Her research leads to shocking revelations of one parent's trans-Atlantic escape to Mexico and New York, and how the other eluded capture throughout Eastern and Central Europe with false papers. Having scoured online and real-world archives and visited the relevant cities, Frenkel honors her parents, her sole surviving grandparent, and her lost relatives who cease to be mere names and who she came to respect and love. The tale Frenkel weaves is both personal and universal, as we begin to feel that her family could be ours. Frenkel also shares her refugee great-grandparents' rare and huge collection of stunning oil and pastel portraits, photos, and documents which were discovered in 1968 in garbage bags. Most Holocaust families lost everything, but these cherished artifacts reveal the Jewish assimilated culture in Kraków and Berlin that the Nazis obliterated. Readers also join Frenkel on her visit to Vienna Krak w Tarn w and Lviv Ukraine where the action took place Such astonishing tales of survival resistance luck and loss have the power to captivate readers of all generations and backgrounds and inspire them to explore their own family histories Love with No Tomorrow Mindelle Pierce,2021-09-15 Love with No Tomorrow shares a spark of light by sharing true love stories of the Holocaust This heart wrenching book uses hundreds of hours of interviews with survivors and their children to present first hand accounts of the relationships that blossomed in extermination camps sparking hope in the darkest of times
