Max Beckmann The Still Lifes:

Max Beckmann Karin Schick, Hubertus Gassner, 2014 The Still Lifes is accompanied by a richly illustrated catalogue that also features insightful scholarly essays on the topic Provided by Hamburger Kunsthalle Modern Art at the Pinakothek Der Moderne Munich Cathrin Klingsöhr-Leroy, 2005 Cathrin Klingsöhr Leroy gives an appraisal of the key aspects of this period of art history drawing on the wealth of examples the Pinakothek der Moderne has to offer The introduction to each section discusses the successive stylistic developments and trends followed by an explanation of the technique history and significance of each selected work of art BOOK JACKET The Artist's Estate Dr. Loretta Württemberg, 2021-11-24 Andy Warhol bequeathed us the words Death can really make you look like a star But death per se is not a catalyst for the relevance of an artist What is of crucial importance is the proper management structure for the posthumous preservation and development of an artistic estate The handbook by Loretta Württemberg presents the possible legal framework appropriate financing models as well as the proper handling of the market museums and academia Her business Fine Art Partners has advised artists and artists estates for many years in their structuring and development of estate concepts as well as in operative questions Based on numerous international examples the author explains the different alternatives for maintaining an artist's estate and makes recommendations on how to ideally handle work archives and mementos following the death of an artist Pictorial Narrative in the Nazi Period Deborah Schultz, Edward Timms, 2013-10-31 This book investigates creative responses to the Nazi period in the work of three artists Felix Nussbaum Charlotte Salomon and Arnold Daghani focusing on their use of pictorial narrative It analyses their contrasting aesthetic strategies and their innovative forms of artistic production In contrast with the autonomous modernist art object their works were explicitly linked with the historical conditions under which they were produced the pressures of persecution and exile Conditions in the slave labour camps and ghettos in the Ukraine which shaped the paintings and drawings of Daghani are contrasted with the experiences of exile in Belgium and France which inspired Nussbaum and Salomon In defiance of conventional artistic practice they produced word image combinations that can be read as narrative sequences incorporating specific references to political events While there has been a wealth of literary philosophical and historical studies relating to the Holocaust aesthetic debate has developed less extensively This is the first comparative study of three artists who are only belatedly achieving recognition and the recent reception of their work is evaluated By identifying the aesthetic principles and narrative strategies underlying their work the book reassesses their achievement in creating new forms of modernism with an unmistakable political momentum This book was published as a special issue of Word Image Still-life Painting in the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, Karyn Esieloni, 1994 America & Europe, a Century of Modern Masters from the Thyssen-Bornemisza Collection, 1980 Max Beckmann Max Beckmann, Bernhard Bürgi, Nina Peter, Hans Belting, 2011 Max Beckmann is one of the titans of modernism although he considered himself the last

Old Master This publication examines the artist's landscape paintings which are less characterized by allegorical layers of meaning than his works in other genres Their splendid painterly qualities are immediately perceptible The starting point for these landscapes was a potent experience of nature Frequently personal objects appear in the foreground like remnants of still lifes making the viewer aware of the artist's presence But the paintings are also realistic representations of places the artist visited and Beckmann referred to photographs or postcards of these sites as part of his creative process Further inspirations came from art itself flashes of Beckmann's immense knowledge of art history can be seen in his citations of other works Thus his landscapes can be regarded as a kind of summary of his understanding of the world

Twentieth-century German Painting Peter Vergo, 1992 The Saint Louis Art Museum ... Bulletin, 1994 Prized Possessions Peter C. Sutton, Robert J. Boardingham, 1992 ARTnews, 1956 Marie-Louise Von Motesiczky 1906-1996 Marie-Louise von Motesiczky, 2006 The first comprehensive catalog of an important German Jewish expressionist painter On the occasion of the one hundredth anniversary of the artist's birth this catalogue presents for the first time an overview of Marie Louise von Motesiczky's paintings in an elegant volume of full color reproductions accompanied by illuminating commentary Born in Vienna she studied with Max Beckmann who became a significant influence on the young artist Later in exile in London Motesiczky grew close to Oskar Kokoschka and became acquainted with some of the leading intellectuals of the twentieth century including Elias Canetti with whom she shared a long and intimate relationship The paintings and drawings in this book explore the artist's transition from the edgy realism of her early years to the softer and more poetic paintings of her later work Her portraits for which she is most famous include compelling self examinations as well as a moving series devoted to her mother Essays on Motesiczky's youth in Vienna her friendship with Beckmann and her time in London provide crucial background to a unique and fascinating artist whose wider recognition is long overdue
