Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 2) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-07-16 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Volume 2 allows users to locate organizations by the country in which secretariats or members are located Contemporary International Criminal Law Issues Takeh B. K. Sendze, Adesola Adeboyejo, Howard Morrison, Sophia Ugwu, 2023-03-28 This book critically analyses diverse international criminal law ICL issues in light of recent developments in the international criminal justice system following the pursuit of accountability in Africa and around the world It gives a scholarly analysis of issues pertaining to ICL and the pursuit of accountability in Africa by way of several topics including universal jurisdiction in Africa Boko Haram in Nigeria the legitimacy of the ICTR the law of genocide committed against the Herero and Nama peoples the African perspective on international co operation in criminal matters the Malabo Protocol and whether an African Regional Court is a viable alternative to the ICC Further discussed are other aspects of ICL such as prosecuting sexual and gender based crimes at the ICC sexual and gender based crimes perpetrated against men guilty pleas within ICL and slavery within international criminal justice With this the book also refers to the jurisprudence of several international courts and tribunals including the ICTR the ICTY the SCSL the ICC the ECCC the KSC and the STL This timely contributed volume updates international criminal law experts practitioners academics human rights activists and other stakeholders on contemporary developments in ICL and provides recommendations that address accountability for mass atrocity crimes and ideas for strategic ICL litigation at the national international regional and sub regional levels It will prompt constructive exchanges on what can be improved in prosecuting mass atrocity crimes around the world Takeh B K Sendze is an Advocate and Legal Officer with the United Nations International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals in Arusha Tanzania Adesola Adeboyejo is a Trial Lawyer at the International Criminal Court Sir Howard Morrison QC is a former International Judge and an Associate Tenant at Doughty Street Chambers in London United Kingdom Sophia Ugwu is a Solicitor and Advocate who founded the Centre for African Justice Peace and Human Rights in The Hague The Netherlands Amerasia Elizabeth Horodowich, Alexander Nagel, 2023-09-05 A connected world as imagined by early modern European artists mapmakers and writers where Asia and the Americas were on a continuum America and Asia mingled in the geographical and cultural imagination of Europe for well over a century after 1492 Through an array of texts maps objects and images produced between 1492 and 1700 this compelling and revelatory study immerses the reader in a vision of a world where

Mexico really was India North America was an extension of China and South America was marked by a variety of biblical and Asian sites It asks further What does it mean that the Amerasian worldview predominated at a time when Europe itself was coming into cultural self definition Each of the chapters focuses on a particular artifact map image or book that illuminates aspects of Amerasia from specific European cultural milieus Amerasia shows how it was possible to inhabit a world where America and Asia were connected either imaginatively when viewed from afar or in reality when traveling through the newly encountered lands Readers will learn why early modern maps regularly label Mexico as India why the Amazonas region was named after a race of Asian female warriors and why artifacts and manuscripts that we now identify as Indian and Chinese are entangled in European collections with what we now label Americana Elizabeth Horodowich and Alexander Nagel pose a dynamic model of the world and of Europe s place in it that was eclipsed by the rise of Eurocentric colonialist narratives in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries To rediscover this history is an essential part of coming to terms with the emergent polyfocal global reality of our own time

Creating Makers Megan Egbert, 2016-07-18 This book shows you how even with a tight budget and limited space you can foster maker mentality in your library and help patrons reap the learning benefits of making with or without a makerspace Just because your library is small or limited on funds doesn t mean you can t be part of the maker movement This book explains that what is really important about the movement is not the space but the creativity innovation and resilience that go along with a successful maker program All it takes is making some important changes to a library s programs services and collections to facilitate the maker mentality in their patrons and this book shows you how The author explains what a maker is why this movement is important and how making fits in with educational initiatives such as STEM and STEAM as well as with library service Her book supplies practical advice for incorporating the principles of the maker movement into library services how to use small spaces or mobile spaces to accommodate maker programs creating passive maker programs providing access to making through circulating maker tools partnering with other organizations hosting maker faires and more Readers will better understand their instructional role in cultivating makers by human centered design thinking open source and shared learning and implementation of an inquiry approach

The Science of Basic L-Rod Dowsing Richard Warburton, 2025-02-14 Dowsing has been a known practice for at least 500 years with some evidence suggesting it may have been used for millennia Historically dowsers used a forked Y shaped stick following the movement toward the presence of water minerals or other objects located beneath the ground Today the most common tool used is a wire bent into the shape of an L leading to the term L rod dowsing Only a few of dowsing s many forms appear to have a clear physical basis such that some physical phenomenon in the environment causes a physiological response in the body Despite the many studies performed in the past none have resulted in a comprehensive testable explanation for how dowsing works This book reviews and critiques some of the common explanations for L rod field dowsing describes an investigation into various aspects of L rod dowsing and proposes a mechanism which explains the physical observations

Building on the prior scientific studies it presents a theory based on well known scientific principles for the physical component of dowsing Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning in the Travel Industry Ben Vinod,2023-05-26 Over the past decade Artificial Intelligence has proved invaluable in a range of industry verticals such as automotive and assembly life sciences retail oil and gas and travel The leading sectors adopting AI rapidly are Financial Services Automotive and Assembly High Tech and Telecommunications Travel has been slow in adoption but the opportunity for generating incremental value by leveraging AI to augment traditional analytics driven solutions is extremely high The contributions in this book originally published as a special issue for the Journal of Revenue and Pricing Management showcase the breadth and scope of the technological advances that have the potential to transform the travel experience as well as the individuals who are already putting them into practice Text Analytics for Corpus Linguistics and Digital Humanities Gerold

Schneider,2024-05-02 Do you want to gain a deeper understanding of how big tech analyses and exploits our text data or investigate how political parties differ by analysing textual styles associations and trends in documents Or create a map of a text collection and write a simple QA system yourself This book explores how to apply state of the art text analytics methods to detect and visualise phenomena in text data Solidly based on methods from corpus linguistics natural language processing text analytics and digital humanities this book shows readers how to conduct experiments with their own corpora and research questions underpin their theories quantify the differences and pinpoint characteristics Case studies and experiments are detailed in every chapter using real world and open access corpora from politics World English history and literature The results are interpreted and put into perspective pitfalls are pointed out and necessary pre processing steps are demonstrated This book also demonstrates how to use the programming language R as well as simple alternatives and additions to R to conduct experiments and employ visualisations by example with extensible R code recipes links to corpora and a wide range of methods The methods introduced can be used across texts of all disciplines from history or literature to party manifestos and patient reports Sport Skill Acquisition Dave Collins,Jamie Taylor,2025 This textbook considers three theoretical approaches to skill acquisition exploring how these different approaches can be used separately or in a blended form which the authors term Professional Judgement and Decision Making PJDM or the It Depends approach The mental organizational planning and social aspects of skill are discussed along with practical guidance on how skill can best be planned for developed executed and integrated

Making Spaces Into Places Nenad N. Tasić,Dushka Urem-Kotsou,Marcel Burić,2020 During three millennia of the Neolithic in southeastern Europe important changes in the social organisation everyday practices and beliefs formed a diverse and rich cultural landscape expressed in settlement patterns architecture and numerous aspects of material culture A growing body of data uncovered over the last few decades shows striking variety in settlement organisation from single layered short lived sites to long lived tell settlements located in different geographical settings In addition small sites e g 0.5 ha and extended settlements also appear in most sub regions

This volume brings together new data on the Neolithic of southeastern Europe emphasising the organisation and use of space within the regions of Northern Greece the Balkan hinterland and north western Turkey To this end individual chapters focus either on the intra site organisation of recently excavated settlements or provide an up to date synthesis on the regional level combining old and new data Who's who in America ,1962
