Mabel Ann Brown, Jon White

Limpopo 2012 September Papers Grade 1:

The Youth Dividend Jan H. Hofmeyr, 2012 Education and Development Simon McGrath, 2018-05-08 This title explores the place of education in development debates and provides a systematic as well as a theoretical overview of the main approaches to education and development. It emphasises the fact that education is profoundly shaped by national and local cultures even if many issues are shared across institutions in different locations. Education and Development discusses different theoretical accounts from different disciplinary traditions to help students understand the complexity of the overall debate. The text does not shy away from discussions of education's negative impacts and insists that an account of education must include consideration of early childhood development, adult vocational and higher education as well as the growing range of informal and distance forms. It includes chapters on human capital, human rights and human development and on education, gender and development and draws on examples from a wide range of countries and regions such as India, Hong Kong, Kenya and South Africa. The book has a well-developed pedagogy including text boxes, chapter summaries, key questions, links to websites and videos and annotated further reading sections. Particular attention is paid to ensuring that a plurality of voices, contexts and educational sub-sectors are represented in the boxes, weblinks and references. Education and Development provides an introductory overview to the field aimed at the undergraduate level while critically engaging with key themes and questions. The book will also be of interest to development practitioners, policymakers, entrepreneurs and corporate employees engaged in aspects of education and development work.

Exploring childhood in a comparative context Mabel Ann Brown, Jon White, 2013-09-05 Exploring Childhood in a Comparative Context meets an increasing need for students focusing on early childhood to be familiar with alternative practices in other countries. Providing a ready-made source of information about a wide range of countries including Finland, the Netherlands, the United States, New Zealand, Japan, South Africa and many more, the book clearly describes the way each country understands and conceptualises childhood. Each chapter includes contextual information about the country, an introduction to the theory that has shaped practice and describes the curriculum for pre-school and primary education. Including vignettes from practitioners working in each country to illustrate practice, the chapters explore key themes such as Child development, Parental involvement, Teaching and learning, Professionalism, Assessment, Pupil experience, Accessibility, written and including opportunities for reflection. This timely new book will give students a valuable insight into alternative education systems that is essential if they are to become practitioners with a current and global approach.
