Leadership in Social Sector Institutions: Examining 4 Essential Attributes in Leaders Chuck Allison, 2014-11-04
Are You Called to Leadership in the Social Sector There are significant influences causing current and future leaders to undervalue the idea of being called to serve society People are pushed to live and work outside their calling Increasingly too we are disappointed with the courage of our leaders in every sector of society to stay true to their convictions Promises made at election or interview times are broken soon after appointment Constituents develop reasons to question the leader's capabilities and acceptance of that leadership wanes Society is crying out for more leaders of integrity who have the courage to pursue and be true to their calling and who discipline their lives to cultivate right character I invite you to examine these essential attributes of leaders and encourage you to take action to develop your leadership potential Chuck Allison

Leadership in Nonprofit Organizations Kathryn A. Agard, 2011 Leadership in Non Profit Organizations tackles issues and leadership topics for those seeking to understand more about this dynamic sector of society A major focus of this two volume reference work is on the specific roles and skills required of the non profit leader in voluntary organizations Key features include contributions from a wide range of authors who reflect the variety vibrancy and creativity of the sector itself an overview of the history of non profit organizations in the United States description of a robust and diverse assortment of organizations and opportunities for leadership an exploration of the nature of leadership and its complexity as exemplified in the non profit sector availability both in print and online this title will form part of the 2010 Encyclopedia Collection on SAGE Reference Online The Handbook includes topics such as personalities of non profit leaders vision and starting a nonprofit organization nonprofit law statutes taxation and regulations strategic management financial management collaboration public relations for promoting a non profit organization human resource policies and procedures The Handbook of Climate Change Leadership in Organisations Doug MacKie, 2023-11-27 Climate change is one of the most significant and challenging problems we face today and many organisations have recognised their responsibility in reducing emissions and environmental degradation and regenerating biodiversity However conventional leadership has failed to respond adequately to the magnitude of the threat and a profound change in corporate leadership is required to substantively cut emissions and change climate policy to minimise further destructive environmental impact This book sets out the qualities and approaches needed by leaders to successfully develop and implement climate change mitigation and adaptation policies Bringing together the foremost experts in climate change leadership from business leadership psychology and coaching backgrounds this book addresses the failures of current leadership practice and proposes a variety of models of how climate change leadership capabilities can be effectively developed in organisations It is structured around four concepts foundations which includes models of environmental ecological and evolutionary leadership transitions which looks at transformational and ethical models that are being repurposed for the age of sustainability progressions which explores innovative models that are being developed for the current age including systems adaptation and maturity based models of leadership and actions which includes models of sustainable goal setting and climate leadership coaching and development The book is written for corporate leaders researchers and educators and will be an invaluable addition to the leadership curriculum and executive development programmes to help the next generation of leaders respond to global challenges      Fifty Shades of Grey: Exploring the Dark Sides of Leadership and Followership Susanne Braun,Ronit Kark,Barbara Wisse,2019-01-21 The scientific field of leadership and followership is fast evolving and has seen several interesting developments over recent years The early heroic views of leadership are slowly turning into more nuanced perspectives including the understanding that leadership and followership are mutually dependent on each other Likewise there is a growing awareness that the focus on the positive side of leadership and followership can be fruitfully complemented by a focus on the darker sides of these constructs According to the latest research plenty of grey areas exist where further insights into leadership and followership are needed We seek to emphasize the different shades of dark leadership by taking leaders followers and their interaction in specific contexts into account Accordingly many of the findings presented in this Research Topic align with a deviation away from the idea of the omnipotent leader Not only leaders dark traits such as narcissism and psychopathy but also followers Machiavellianism emerged as hindering factors for positive organizational functioning Other results presented in this Research Topic will be fruitful to explain what drives leaders towards dark side behaviors the consequences of dark side leader behaviors e g different types of destructive leadership and how followers respond to them e g follower attributions of perceived abusive supervision Contributions to this Research Topic are also pushing the boundaries of current theorizing shedding further light on the shades of grey when it comes to the possibly unintended negative consequences of leadership and followership In sum the dark sides of leadership and followership are a natural part of an organizational reality that many employees face day in and day out The aim of this Research Topic is to encourage an integrative view of leadership and followership and their dark sides for a better understanding of complex organizational systems and implications for better practice      XXX International Congress of Psychology: Abstracts Michele Robert,2017-10-03 The abstracts of the XXX International Congress of Psychology July 2012 Cape Town are published as a supplement to Volume 47 of the International Journal of Psychology The published volume includes the abstracts of the invited addresses symposia oral and poster presentations numbering over 5 000 separate contributions and creating an invaluable overview of the discipline of psychological science around the world today      The Handbook of Student Affairs Administration Margaret J. Barr,Mary K. Desler,2000-03-17 Sponsored by the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators What issues and trends affect higher education and student affairs today What skills and competencies will student affairs administrators need to confront change and future challenges What opportunities and choices will they discover as they strive to develop professionally In this fully updated handbook thirty nine experts discuss the answers to these and other essential questions Together they
