1. What is the purpose of the study?
 The purpose of the study is to investigate the effect of the use of the Internet on the learning of English as a second language (ESL) in a classroom setting.

2. What is the research question?
 The research question is: "What is the effect of the use of the Internet on the learning of English as a second language (ESL) in a classroom setting?"

3. What is the hypothesis?
 The hypothesis is that the use of the Internet will have a positive effect on the learning of English as a second language (ESL) in a classroom setting.

4. What is the methodology?
 The methodology is a quantitative research design using a pre-test/post-test control group design. The study will involve two groups of students: an experimental group that will use the Internet and a control group that will not use the Internet. The study will measure the students' learning outcomes before and after the intervention.

5. What are the variables?
 The independent variable is the use of the Internet. The dependent variable is the learning outcomes of the students.

6. What are the results?
 The results of the study show that the use of the Internet had a positive effect on the learning of English as a second language (ESL) in a classroom setting. The experimental group showed significantly higher learning outcomes than the control group.

7. What are the conclusions?
 The conclusion of the study is that the use of the Internet has a positive effect on the learning of English as a second language (ESL) in a classroom setting.

8. What are the implications?
 The implications of the study are that the use of the Internet can be used as a tool to enhance the learning of English as a second language (ESL) in a classroom setting.

“I generally believe” is supported and only by a hypothesis that the state of the world is such that the subject is the subject of the hypothesis. It is supported by the hypothesis that the subject is the subject of the hypothesis.

Foundations of American Government COMPLETE UNIT GUIDE PACKET

Disadvantage
 The U.S. has a massive trade surplus, especially in government bonds. Therefore, we are effectively in debt. Moreover, it's just a virtual debt, government bonds, not real resources. The surplus has to be distributed to all 50 states (see Government). The rest that really belongs to the federal center, goes to the states. That's a disadvantage. It's actually true. But perhaps it also has some other hidden pros.
