Complexity and Simplicity in Science Education David Geelan, Kim Nichols, Christine V. McDonald, 2022-01-25 This edited volume brings together a broad range of international science education studies focusing on the interplay of teaching and learning science It recognizes the complexity present in today's education associated with major science related issues faced by society such as climate change diseases and pandemics global conflicts over energy food and water The studies discussed in this volume are focused on presenting different opportunities to teach these convoluted matters in order to find simplicity within the complexity and make it accessible to learners They bring together the challenges of preparing the students of today to become scientifically informed citizens of tomorrow

Natural Science Education, Indigenous Knowledge, and Sustainable Development in Rural and Urban Schools in Kenya Darren M. O'Hern, Yoshiko Nozaki, 2014-05-05 Through a multi sited qualitative study of three Kenyan secondary schools in rural Taita Hills and urban Nairobi the volume explores the ways the dichotomy between Western and indigenous knowledge operates in Kenyan education In particular it examines views on natural sciences expressed by the students teachers the state's curricula documents and schools exam oriented pedagogical approaches O'Hern and Nozaki question state and local education policies and practices as they relate to natural science subjects such as agriculture biology and geography and their dismissal of indigenous knowledge about environment nature and sustainable development They suggest the need to develop critical postcolonial curriculum policies and practices of science education to overcome knowledge oriented binaries emphasize sustainable development and address the problems of inequality the center and periphery divide and social cultural and environmental injustices in Kenya and by implication elsewhere In an era of environmental crisis and devastation education that supports sustainability and survival of our planet is needed Within a broader sociopolitical context of post colonialism and globalization this volume points out possibilities and challenges to achieve such an education The authors propose a critical postcolonial approach that acknowledges the contextual and situational production of all knowledge and that de dichotomizes indigenous from Western scientific knowledge Eric Rico Gutstein Professor Curriculum and Instruction University of Illinois at Chicago USA

China Studies In South And Southeast Asia: Between Pro-china And Objectivism Chih-yu Shih, Prapin Manomaivibool, Reena Marwah, 2018-08-13 The rise of China has reconstituted the regional identity in Asia as well as the lens through which understanding of China and self understanding are no longer separate processes intellectually China scholarship in South and Southeast Asia necessarily highlights meanings of encountering China that Western social sciences fail to reflect because academics in many places being migrants navigate and combine more than one civilization forces With China in itself undergoing transformation it is unlikely that one can simply speak of China without multiple qualifications of what one actually refers to The book gathers authors who come from different scholarly traditions to reflect upon how the presentation of China in academic writings as well as think tank analyses can engender different identity possibilities The book therefore complicates the category China to enable mutual empathy between everything that in one way or another relies on Chineseness as object or subject in accordance with the identity strategies of the China experts Catalogue of the University of Texas University of Texas,1920 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion Jo Fraser-Pearce,James W. Fraser,2023-09-21 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion provides the first truly global scan of contemporary issues and debates around the world regarding the relationships between the state schools and religion Organized around specific contested issues from whether or not mindfulness should be practised in schools to appropriate and inappropriate religious attire in schools to long term battles about evolution sexuality and race to public funding Fraser Pearce and Fraser carefully curate chapters by leading experts exploring these matters and others in a diverse range of national settings The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion offers a refreshingly new international perspective University of Texas Bulletin ,1920 The Examination Statutes ...
