Counting the Cost Clemens Sedmak,Kelli Reagan Hickey,2023-06-15 What difference would Catholic Social Tradition make if it guided our personal and communal financial decision making The Sermon on the Mount reminds us of this fundamental decision making when it comes to questions of faith and money No one can serve two masters for a slave will either hate the one and love the other or be devoted to the one and despise the other You cannot serve God and wealth Matthew 6 24 In Counting the Cost Clemens Sedmak and Kelli Reagan Hickey suggest a theological and spiritual discernment process for the everyday reality of budgeting and financial planning that explores the status of money and monetary values by reflecting on this gospel call Counting the Cost explains how Catholic Social Teaching provides a framework for our thinking around finances by answering questions such as What does this fundamental decision look like in times of financial scarcity and stewardship responsibilities How do the attitudes that Jesus invites us into shape the ways we make financial decisions And how can budgeting be and become a way of discipleship for individuals parishes and dioceses The book includes a range of financial decision making examples and reconstructs them as decisions about priorities values and commitments to respond to the world and its material realities in a gospel inspired way The Enacting Catholic Social Tradition series is dedicated to the systematic application of Catholic Social Teaching to real world problems and issues Written for both academics and pastoral practitioners who want to draw on and learn more about the rich resources of Catholic Social Tradition for the practical work of justice the series aims to strengthen the capacity of the church to respond lovingly and well to the demands of the gospel
