

International Trade Test

1. Goods and services purchased from foreign sources by the United States:

- (E) Are US imports.
- (F) Increase the US trade deficit, ceteris paribus.
- (G) Threaten US domestic import-competing industries.
- (H) All of the above.

2. Goods and services sold to foreign sources by the United States:

- (A) Are exports.
- (B) Are imports.
- (C) Threaten domestic import-competing industries.
- (D) All of the above.

3. When the United States has a trade deficit:

- (P) Exports exceed imports.
- (Q) The U.S. economy produces more than it consumes.
- (R) The trade balance is negative.
- (S) All of the above.

4. Over a given period of time if exports are greater than imports, the result is:

- (A) A trade war.
- (B) An embargo.
- (C) A trade surplus
- (D) A trade deficit.

5. When the overall trade balance is zero:

- (E) Merchandise exports equal merchandise imports.
- (F) The service trade balance must be zero.
- (G) Exports equal imports.
- (H) All of the above.

6. Over a given period of time if imports are greater than exports, the result is:

- (D) A trade war.
- (E) A trade deficit.
- (F) An embargo.
- (G) A trade surplus.

7. Which of the following is an argument for free trade?

- (A) Lower consumption possibilities.
- (B) Greater efficiency through specialization.
- (C) The need to protect goods and services essential to national security.
- (D) Aiding infant industries.

8. If a country is completely self-reliant in producing goods for its own consumption needs, then:

- (D) It consumes more than it can with trade.
- (E) Its consumption possibilities equal its production possibilities.
- (F) It promotes specialization.
- (G) It achieves a higher standard of living than if it engages in international trade.

9. Two countries will have zero incentive to trade if their production-possibilities curves are parallel straight lines because:

- (S) The opportunity costs for both countries are the same.
- (T) One country has an absolute advantage in the production of both goods thus providing that country no incentive for trade.
- (U) One country has a comparative advantage in the production of both goods thus providing that country with no incentive for trade.
- (V) An intersection of the two PPCs is not possible and therefore a trade equilibrium is not possible.

International Trade and Finance Peter B. Kenen, 2008-07-10 The nine papers in this volume were written for a conference on research in international trade and finance held at Princeton University in March 1973 Each author was asked to survey research on one major topic with a view to answering three questions What have we learned from recent empirical research What are the major gaps in present knowledge How should we go about filling those gaps When answering the second question authors were urged to look at the practical requirements of those who must make policy concerning the international economy and at the opportunities and insights offered by recent developments in pure theory When answering the third they were urged to look at developments in econometric technique newly available data and work in progress in related fields

International Trade, Factor Movements, and the Environment Michael Rauscher, 1997 Trade and the environment has become a major area of international political dispute This study investigates the interdependencies between environmental policies and international trade policies Does liberalization of international goods and factor markets cause environmental disruption and welfare losses Will countries institute lax ecological regulations to favour their domestic producers Should trade restrictions be used for environmental reasons and can environmental policy instruments be used to achieve trade related objectives Should there be what the author terms a green GATT The approach is mainly theoretical and uses traditional trade models like Heckscher Ohlin as well as non competitive models of the new trade theory and public choice Some other important but often neglected aspects such as trade in hazardous wastes and the foreign debt problem with the possibility of debt for nature swaps are also considered Finally International Trade Factor Movements and the Environment addresses institutional issues on both national and international levels The book will be essential reading for all international and environmental economists
