Theology in Nigeria John Arierhi Ottuh, 2019-01-22 This book provides a Biblical and theological underpinning to the concept of ethnic liberation in Nigeria. It argues that the present economic, political, ethnic and religious structure of Nigeria represents injustice and oppression to those in the so-called minority groups. The situation has resulted in division, unrest and mutual suspicion among people of different ethnicities and religions. Bringing together liberation theology, biblical hermeneutical and social studies to foster dialogue between theories and human relations in Nigeria, the book presents an exegesis of Galatians 3:26-29 weaving out a theology of ethnic liberation. As such, it will be useful to theologians, students of religious studies and philosophy and political historians as well as the general reader interested in African studies.
