Uganda Nutrition Action Plan, 2011-2016 Uganda, 2011 The Uganda Gazette Uganda, 2017 Democracy and the Discourse on Relevance Within the Academic Profession at Makerere University Kronstad Felde, Tor Halvorsen, 2021-09-20

Democracy and the Discourse on Relevance Within the Academic Profession at Makerere University is set against the backdrop of the spread of neoliberal ideas and reforms since the 1980s. While accepting that these ideas are rooted in a longer history, the authors reveal how neoliberalism has transformed the university sector and the academic profession. In particular, they focus on how understandings of what knowledge is relevant and how this is decided have changed. Taken as a whole, reforms have sought to reorient universities and academics towards economic development in various ways. Shifts in how institutions and academics achieve recognition and status combined with the flow of public funds away from the universities and the increasing privatisation of educational services are steadily downgrading the value of public higher education. As research universities adopt user and market oriented operating models and prioritise the demands of the corporate sector in their research agendas, the sale of intellectual property is increasingly becoming a primary criterion for determining the relevance of academic knowledge. All these changes have largely succeeded in transforming the discourse around the role of the academic profession in society. In this context, Makerere University in Uganda has been lauded as having successfully achieved transformation. However, far from highlighting the allegedly positive outcomes of this reform, this book provides worrying insights into the dissolution of Uganda's academic culture. Drawing on interviews with over ninety academics at Makerere University, from deans to doctoral students, the authors provide first hand accounts of the pressures and problems the reforms have created. Disempowered, overworked and under resourced, many academics are forced to take on consultancy work to make ends meet. The evidence presented here stands in stark contrast to the successes claimed by the university. However, as the authors also show, local resistance to the neoliberal model is rising as academics begin to collaborate to regain control over what knowledge is considered relevant and wrestle with deepening democracy. The authors' careful exposé of how neoliberalism devalues academic knowledge and the urgency of countering this trend makes Democracy and the Discourse on Relevance Within the Academic Profession at Makerere University highly relevant for anyone working in higher education or involved in shaping policy for this sector.

Death and the Textile Industry in Nigeria Elisha P Renne, 2020-11-23. This book draws upon thinking about the work of the dead in the context of deindustrialization, specifically the decline of the textile industry in Kaduna, Nigeria, and its consequences for deceased workers' families. The author shows how the dead work in various ways for Christians and Muslims who worked in KTL mill in Kaduna, not only for their families who still hope to receive termination remittances but also as connections to extended family members in other parts of Nigeria and as claims to land and houses in Kaduna. Building upon their actions as a way of thinking about the ways that the dead work for the living, the author focuses on three major themes. The first considers the growth of the city of Kaduna as a colonial construct which as the capital of the Protectorate of Northern Nigeria was organized by neighborhoods by public cemeteries and by industrial areas The second theme examines the establishment of textile mills in the industrial area and new ways of thinking about work and labor organization time regimens and health particularly occupational ailments documented in mill clinic records The third theme discusses the consequences of KTL mill workers deaths for the lives of their widows and children This book will be of interest to scholars of African studies development studies anthropology of work and the history of industrialization The Introduction Chapter 2 and the Conclusion of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003058137> Handbook of Research on Records and Information Management Strategies for Enhanced Knowledge Coordination Chisita, Collence Takaingenhamo, Enakrire, Rexwhite Tega, Durodolu, Oluwole Olumide, Tsabedze, Vusi Wonderboy, Ngoaketsi, Joseph M., 2021-01-15 The convergence of technologies and emergence of interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary modes of knowledge production justify the need for research that explores the disinterestedness or interconnectivity of the information science disciplines The quantum leap in knowledge production increasing demand for information and knowledge changing information needs information governance and proliferation of digital technologies in the era of ubiquitous digital technologies justify research that employs a holistic approach in examining the challenges of managing information in an increasingly knowledge and technology driven dispensation The changing nature of knowledge production for sustainable development along with trends and theory for enhanced knowledge coordination deserve focus in current times The Handbook of Research on Records and Information Management Strategies for Enhanced Knowledge Coordination draws input from experts involved in records management information science library science memory and digital technology creating a vanguard compendium of novel trends and praxis While highlighting a vast array of topics under the scope of library science information science knowledge transfer records management and more this book is ideally designed for knowledge and information managers library and information science schools policymakers practitioners stakeholders administrators researchers academicians and students interested in records and information management Social norms, intersectionality and sexual and reproductive health and rights in low and middle income countries Paul Mukisa Wako Bukuluki, Beniamino Cislighi, Rebecka Lundgren, 2024-01-15 Wildcheck – Assessing the risks and opportunities of trade in wild plant ingredients Schindler, C., Heral, E., Drinkwater, E., Timoshyna, A., Muir, G., Walter, S., Leaman, D.J., Schippmann, U., 2022-04-22 Thousands of consumer products around the world contain ingredients obtained from wild plants Wild harvest accounts for some or all the harvest of the great majority of plant species in trade between 60-90 percent Wild harvested plants often come from the most biodiverse ecosystems on earth and many have been used traditionally or by local communities for generations While these products have global markets and provide critical sources of income they can also
