EFA Global Monitoring Report - 2013-2014 - Teaching and Learning Achieving quality for all UNESCO, 2014-02-04

The 2013-2014 Education for All Global Monitoring Report shows that a lack of attention to education quality and a failure to reach the marginalized have contributed to a learning crisis that needs urgent attention Worldwide 250 million children many of them from disadvantaged backgrounds are not learning the basics Teaching and Learning Achieving Quality for All describes how policy makers can support and sustain a quality education system for all children regardless of background by providing the best teachers The Report also documents global progress in achieving Education for All goals and provides lessons for setting a new education agenda post 2015 In addition the Report identifies that insufficient financing is hindering advances in education

International Handbook of Leadership for Learning Tony Townsend, John MacBeath, 2011-07-10

The International Handbook of Leadership for Learning brings together chapters by distinguished authors from thirty one countries in nine different regions of the world The handbook contains nine sections that provide regional overviews a consideration of theoretical and contextual aspects system and policy approaches that promote leadership for learning with a focus on educating school leaders for learning and the role of the leader in supporting learning It also considers the challenge of educating current leaders for this new perspective and how leaders themselves can develop leadership for learning in others and in their organisations especially in diverse contexts and situations The final chapter considers what we now know about leadership for learning and looks at ways this might be further improved in the future The book provides the reader with an understanding of the rich contextual nature of learning in schools and the role of school leaders and leadership development in promoting this It concludes that the preposition for between the two readily known and understood terms of leadership and learning changes everything as it foregrounds learning and complexifies rather than simplifies what that word may mean Whereas common terms such as instructional leadership reduce learning to outcomes leadership for learning embraces a much wider developmental view of learning

Pediatric Neurology, Part II Olivier Dulac, Maryse Lassonde, Harvey B. Sarnat, 2013-04-23 The child is neither an adult miniature nor an immature human being at each age it expresses specific abilities that optimize adaptation to its environment and development of new acquisitions Diseases in children cover all specialties encountered in adulthood and neurology involves a particularly large area ranging from the brain to the striated muscle the generation and functioning of which require half the genes of the whole genome and a majority of mitochondrial ones Human being nervous system is sensitive to prenatal aggression is particularly immature at birth and development may be affected by a whole range of age dependent disorders distinct from those that occur in adults Even diseases more often encountered in adulthood than childhood may have specific expression in the developing nervous system The course of chronic neurological diseases beginning before adolescence remains distinct from that of adult pathology not only from the cognitive but also motor perspective right into adulthood and a whole area is developing for adult neurologists to care for these children with persisting neurological diseases when they become adults Just as pediatric neurology evolved as an identified specialty as the volume and complexity of data became too much for the general pediatrician or the adult neurologist to master the discipline has now continued to evolve into so many subspecialties such as epilepsy neuromuscular disease stroke malformations neonatal neurology metabolic diseases etc that the general pediatric neurologist no longer can reasonably possess in depth expertise in all areas particularly in dealing with complex cases Subspecialty expertise thus is provided to some trainees through fellowship programmes following a general pediatric neurology residency and many of these fellowships include training in research Since the infectious context the genetic background and medical practice vary throughout the world this diversity needs to be represented in a pediatric neurology textbook Taken together and although brain malformations H Sarnat P Curatolo 2007 and oncology W Grisold R Soffietti are covered in detail in other volumes of the same series and therefore only briefly addressed here these considerations justify the number of volumes and the number of authors who contributed from all over the world Experts in the different subspecialties also contributed to design the general framework and contents of the book Special emphasis is given to the developmental aspect and normal development is reminded whenever needed brain muscle and the immune system The course of chronic diseases into adulthood and ethical issues specific to the developing nervous system are also addressed A volume in the Handbook of Clinical Neurology series which has an unparalleled reputation as the world's most comprehensive source of information in neurology International list of contributors including the leading workers in the field Describes the advances which have occurred in clinical neurology and the neurosciences their impact on the understanding of neurological disorders and on patient care Positive Learning Global Network of People Living With HIV, UNESCO, 2012-06-26 SADC Gender Protocol 2015 Barometer Morna,
