Cycling Pathways Henk-Jan Dekker, 2025-10-01 In an effort to fight climate change, many cities try to boost their cycling levels. They often look towards the Dutch for guidance. However, historians have only begun to uncover how and why the Netherlands became the premier cycling country of the world. Why were Dutch cyclists so successful in their fight for a place on the road? Cycling Pathways: The Politics and Governance of Dutch Cycling Infrastructure 1920-2020 explores the long political struggle that culminated in today's high cycling levels. Delving into the archives, it uncovers the important role of social movements and shows in detail how these interacted with national, provincial, and urban engineers and policymakers to govern the distribution of road space and construction of cycling infrastructure. It discusses a wide range of topics, ranging from activists to engineering committees, from urban commuters to recreational cyclists, and from the early 1900s to today, in order to uncover the long and all but forgotten history of Dutch cycling governance.

The Routledge Handbook of Architecture, Urban Space and Politics, Volume I Nikolina Bobic, Farzaneh Haghighi, 2022-10-28 For architecture and urban space to have relevance in the 21st Century, we cannot merely reignite the approaches of thought and design that were operative in the last century. This is despite or because of the nexus between politics and space, often being theorized as a representation or by-product of politics. As a symbol or an effect, the spatial dimension is depoliticized. Consequently, architecture and the urban are halted from fostering any systematic change as they are secondary to the event and therefore incapable of performing any political role. This handbook explores how architecture and urban space can unsettle the unquestioned construct of the spatial politics of governing. Considering both ongoing and unprecedented global problems, from violence and urban warfare, the refugee crisis, borderization, detention camps, terrorist attacks, to capitalist urbanization, inequity, social unrest, and climate change, this handbook provides a comprehensive and multidisciplinary research focused on the complex nexus of politics, architecture, and urban space Volume I starts by pointing out the need to explore the politics of spatialization to make sense of the operational nature of spatial oppression in contemporary times The operative and active political reading of space is disseminated through five thematics Violence and War Machines Security and Borders Race Identity and Ideology Spectacle and the Screen and Mapping Landscapes and Big Data This first volume of the handbook frames cutting edge contemporary debates and presents studies of actual theories and projects that address spatial politics This Handbook will be of interest to anyone seeking to meaningfully disrupt the reduction of space to an oppressive or neutral backdrop of political realities Chapters 1 and 23 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license

Political Engagement of the Young in Europe Peter Thijssen, Jessy Siongers, Jeroen Van Laer, Jacques Haers, Sara Mels, 2015-12-14 Although many scholars are convinced of the apparent civic disengagement of youth others suggest that civic participation of young people is stable and increasingly expressed through non institutionalized forms of practicing politics This book makes a key contribution to this discussion by asking whether the decline or shift paradigm is sufficient in understanding political participation of the youth It argues that we need to move beyond this framework and develop a renewed reflection on the meaning of civic and political engagement It asks crucial questions such as How can the young be educated into assuming civic and political responsibility Why and how do young people engage in social and political action How do the principal mediating institutions education media and the family contribute to new or different forms of youth civic engagement This text contains contributions from acknowledged specialists such as Constance Flanagan Mark Elchardus Marc Hooghe and Bert Klandermans and will be of key interest to students and scholars of youth and young citizens civic political involvement European politics youth studies sociology political participation and electoral behaviour
