Carnegie,Noor Hasharina Hassan,2023-04-06 This thoughtful and wide ranging open access volume explores the forces and issues shaping and defining contemporary identities and everyday life in Brunei Darussalam It is a subject that until now has received comparatively limited attention from mainstream social scientists working on Southeast Asian societies The volume helps remedy that deficit by detailing the ways in which religion gender place ethnicity nation state formation migration and economic activity work their way into and reflect in the lives of ordinary Bruneians In a first of its kind all the lead authors of the chapter contributions are local Bruneian scholars and the editors skilfully bring the study of Brunei into the fold of the sociology of everyday life from multiple disciplinary directions By engaging local scholars to document everyday concerns that matter to them the volume presents a collage of distinct but interrelated case studies that have been previously undocumented or relatively underappreciated These interior portrayals render new angles of vision scale and nuance to our understandings of Brunei often overlooked by mainstream inquiry Each in its own way speaks to how structures and institutions express themselves through complex processes to influence the lives of inhabitants Academic scholars university students and others interested in the study of contemporary Brunei Darussalam will find this volume an invaluable resource for unravelling its diversity and textures At the same time it hopefully stimulates critical reflection on positionality hierarchies of knowledge production cultural diversity and the ways in which we approach the social science study of Brunei I wish to commend the editors for bringing this volume to fruition It is an important book in the context of Southeast Asian sociology and even more important for the development of our social geographical cultural and historical knowledge of Brunei Victor T King University of Leeds State Audit Planning and Certification Muhammad Akram
