MARY MONROE

MAMA RUBY

A woman and a young girl are walking away from the viewer down a path in a field of yellow wildflowers. The woman is wearing a green dress, and the girl is wearing a dark dress over a light shirt. The background is a hazy, golden landscape with trees and a fence. The overall tone is warm and nostalgic.

A small-town girl becomes the South's most infamous woman...

MaMa Ruby Jean Jensen,2020-01-15 Following her husband s

long illness ending in death Elsea and her three children were left with no home and very little money Her parents offered them a place to live An old house outside of town that had been owned by their family for more than three generations The house had been listed for sale for some time with no takers They happily moved in and began to enjoy their newfound security Elsea quickly made friends with bearded handsome neighbor Corey but she felt that it was too soon for a relationship Corey began encouraging Elsea to take up writing Stephanie began helping with household chores while Tommy tended to roam outdoors Meanwhile five year old Dorrie the quiet one of the bunch began spending much of her time in the attic playing with old dolls and toys that she found there She grew attached to one doll in particular with a smooth porcelain like face just like a baby and a mouth with a tiny hole so she could eat and breathe But the doll had only one beaded glass eye and it gleamed with mischief and evil Dorrie really did not understand this talk of life and death and could not understand at all why her Daddy was not coming home Also she noticed that sharing her breath with the doll rubbing and talking to it seemed to bring it alive It certainly could move about on its own and while that sometimes frightened her she loved the little doll She began working with other toys so they could move too Tommy was the one that began noticing thumps in the attic and other noises in the night He tried to explain to both his mother and sister Stephanie but they did not believe him He did not share what he knew with Corey because he did not want to be seen as fearful of small things So he became the only one responsible for helping Dorrie deal with her creations If only Dorrie could have read her sweet little doll s thoughts she would have run from the attic as fast as she could For you see her doll seemed to have killing in mind
