The Palgrave Handbook of African Education and Indigenous Knowledge Jamaine M. Abidogun, Toyin Falola, 2020-06-02
This handbook explores the evolution of African education in historical perspectives as well as the development within its three systems Indigenous Islamic and Western education models and how African societies have maintained and changed their approaches to education within and across these systems African education continues to find itself at once preserving its knowledge while integrating Islamic and Western aspects in order to compete within this global reality Contributors take up issues and themes of the positioning resistance accommodation and transformations of indigenous education in relationship to the introduction of Islamic and later Western education Issues and themes raised acknowledge the contemporary development and positioning of indigenous education within African societies and provide understanding of how indigenous education works within individual societies and national frameworks as an essential part of African contemporary society Daily Graphic Yaw Boadu-Ayebofoh, 2006-10-18 Osiele Journal of Arts and Social Sciences, 2005 Tell, 2008 Citizens' Organizations and the Civic Training of Youth Bessie Louise Pierce, 1933 Medical Council, 1903 BECE Social Studies for JSS. Kofi B. Quansah, 2005 Journal of the Arts and Social Sciences, Oro, 1996 Pension Policy and Governmentality in China Yan Wang, 2022-10-27 Rapid economic growth is often a disruptive social process threatening the social relations and ideologies of incumbent regimes Yet far from acting defensively the Chinese Communist Party has lead a major social and economic transformation over forty years without yet encountering fundamental challenges subverting its rule A key question for political sociology is thus how have the logics of China's governmentality been able to help maintain compliance from the governed while acting so radically to advance the state's growth priorities This book explores the issue by analysing the detailed trajectories rationale and effects of China's pension reforms It uses strong methods including institutional analysis of resource allocation in the multiple pension schemes and programmes and quantitative text analysis of the knowledge construction in official discourse along with the reforms Causal identification estimates the effects of key policy instruments on public opinion about pension responsibility and political trust Moving beyond the pension issues the analysis discusses with qualitative evidence why falsified compliance might exist in China's society and the mechanisms that may lie behind it Where active counter conduct such as resistance is confined individuals may choose cognitive rebellion and falsify their public compliance The Chinese state's strategy to generate public compliance is hybrid organic and dynamic The state rules society by its customised governance design and constant adjustments Public compliance is not only acquired through buying off the public with governmental performance and transfer benefits but is also manufactured through achieving cultural changes and new ideological foundations for general legitimation Journal of Studies in General Education, 2001 Teaching and Learning for Comprehensive Citizenship Candice Carter, 2020-11-16 Ultimately concerned with how citizenship education for peace can be enriched through interdisciplinary learning this edited volume reveals the role of peace education in global citizenship by illuminating instruction for comprehensive citizenship A truly international collection this volume offers timely insights from countries including Argentina Mexico Spain Canada Bangladesh Korea Zimbabwe and Timor Leste as it provides critical in depth analyses of peace oriented instruction in formal and informal settings The text illustrates how citizenship can be effectively developed on both a global and a local level and discusses the practical learning opportunities that can enact change through schools nongovernmental organizations and community wide civic actions with children youth adults and families This text will appeal to academics and researchers involved in the field of international and comparative education and will be of interest to educators and school leaders concerned with the role citizenship plays in the context of teaching and learning
