Workers, Managers, and Technological Change Daniel B. Cornfield,2013-11-11 Workers Managers and Technological Change Emerging Patterns of Labor Relations contributes significantly to an important subject Technological change is one of the most powerful forces transforming the American industrial relations In fact the synergistic relationships between technology and indus system trial relations are so complex that they are not well or completely understood We know that the impact of technology while not independent of social forces already has been profound it has transformed occupations creating new skills and destroying others altered the power relationships between workers and managers and changed the way workers learn and work Tech nology also has made it possible to decentralize some economic activities out of large metropolitan areas and into small towns rural areas and other coun tries Most important information technology makes it possible for interna tional corporations to operate on a global basis Indeed some international corporations especially those based in the United States are losing their national identities detaching the welfare of corporations from that of particular workers and communities Internationalization facilitated by information technology has transformed industrial relations systems A major objective of the traditional American industrial relations system was to take labor out of competition Addressing Special Educational Needs and Disability in the Curriculum: History Richard Harris,Ian Luff,2017-04-11 The SEND Code of Practice 2015 has reinforced the requirement that all teachers must meet the needs of all learners This topical book provides practical tried and tested strategies and resources that will support teachers in making history lessons accessible and exciting for all pupils including those with special needs The authors draw on a wealth of experience to share their understanding of special educational needs and disabilities and show how the history teacher can reduce or remove any barriers to learning Offering strategies that are specific to the context of history teaching this fully revised edition will enable teachers to Make history education accessible and engaging to pupils of all abilities Create an inclusive classroom environment that responds to the emotional needs of the class and nurtures a culture of learning Develop inclusive practical demonstration and role play techniques to aid conceptual understanding Set assessment objectives Deploy in class support effectively An invaluable tool for continuing professional development this text will be essential for teachers and their teaching assistants seeking guidance specific to teaching history to all pupils regardless of their individual needs This book will also be of interest to SENDCOs senior management teams and ITT providers In addition to practical activities and supporting material contained in the book there are also free online resources for readers to download and use in the preparation of successful inclusive lessons for all pupils
