Historical Fiction Now, 2023-07-18 Historical Fiction Now brings together prominent authors, scholars and critics of historical fiction to explore the genre's character, fortunes and potential in the twenty-first century. Gathering together the voices of novelists, critics, academics and several authors writing across these categories, the volume explores the nature of reading, writing and writing about historical fiction in the present moment while meditating on some of the myriad contexts of the genre. What inspires writers to choose particular moments, events and personalities as the subjects of their fictional imaginings and with what implications for their readers' understanding of the present? How do contemporary scholars approach the making and reception of historical fiction and how do these approaches resonate with writers' own preoccupations in the process of invention? What might scholars of a genre with a long and complex history learn from its contemporary practitioners? Conversely, how do novelists understand their own historical fictions if at all in relation to the theoretical and critical traditions shaping the work of their academic colleagues? The collection features an original essay by Hilary Mantel on the making of the Wolf Hall trilogy as well as contributions from internationally known novelists such as George Saunders, Namwali Serpell, Maaza Mengiste and T. A. Obreht among others.
