Aging and the Art of Living Jan Baars, 2012-10-01 Baars explores philosophers from Plato to Foucault as they consider the meaning of aging and wisdom in our society In this deeply considered meditation on aging in Western culture Jan Baars argues that in today's world living longer does not necessarily mean living better He contends that there has been an overall loss of respect for aging to the point that understanding and dealing with aging people has become a process focused on the decline of potential and the advance of disease rather than on the accumulation of wisdom and the creation of new skills To make his case Baars compares and contrasts the works of such modern era thinkers as Foucault Heidegger and Husserl with the thought of Plato Aristotle Sophocles Cicero and other Ancient and Stoic philosophers He shows how people in the classical period less able to control health hazards had a far better sense of the provisional nature of living which led to a philosophical and religious emphasis on cultivating the art of living and the idea of wisdom This is not to say that modern society's assessments of aging are insignificant but they do need to balance an emphasis on the measuring of age with the concept of living in time Gerontologists philosophers and students will find Baars discussion to be a powerful perceptive conversation starter

Art-of-Living Bernhard Schmitz, 2016-09-29 This volume examines the questions of what constitutes a good life and how one can achieve happiness and well being and analyses different ways in which people can strive for a good life First it presents an overview on important concepts in psychology that are related to living a good life Then a new approach is introduced the concept of art of living as a holistic way to reach happiness Empirical studies are reported involving a questionnaire for measuring art of living and the validity of the questionnaire is demonstrated with respect to a wide range of concepts In addition the volume provides results from empirical studies showing that and how art of living and happiness can be enhanced Several intervention studies are described in detail which have been performed with different groups of subjects including pupils university students and employees Also results of interviews are summarized which were held with people who had been nominated as exemplary artists of living The volume concludes with a description of art of living in autobiographies and presents suggestions for further research with respect to art of living

Ottomiller's Index to Plays in Collections John Henry Ottomiller,Denise L. Montgomery,2011-08-11 The standard location tool for full length plays published in collections and anthologies in England and the United States since the beginning of the 20th century Ottomiller s Index to Plays in Collections has undergone seven previous editions the latest in 1988 covering 1900 through 1985 In this new edition Denise Montgomery has expanded the volume to include collections published in the entire English speaking world through 2000 and beyond This new volume lists more than 3 500 new plays and 2 000 new authors as well as birth and or death information for hundreds of authors Representing the largest expansion between editions this updated volume is a valuable resource for libraries worldwide Van Gogh and the Art of Living Anton Wessels,2013-08-09 Vincent van Gogh believed that one had to learn to read just as one had to learn to see and learn to live Van Gogh conveyed a message in his work about the path that he himself followed that was more true to life the path that human beings walk in their turbulent existence the pilgrimage along the various stages of the road of life He does not speak about the meaning of life but about the true art of living It is fascinating to see and read the moving way in which he wrestled with the deep human questions of the whence why and whither of life He did not see himself doing this on his own but acknowledged kindred spirits and allies in preachers preacher poets painters writers and other artists who also attempted to find their own way through life in a similar fashion Van Gogh was aware like no other of his duty and task in life his vocation as human being and artist That means that he was well acquainted with loneliness fear and despair including suicidal tendencies Nevertheless he understood himself as cut out for faith rather than resignation Human beings follow their life s path through storms and dangers on land and on sea where the star of the sea the Virgin Mary helps them and provides light Van Gogh rejected the unhealthy sickly forms of religion electing instead to embrace authentic forms of piety
