The Secret Life of EL James Marc Shapiro, 2012-12-17 Everyone wants to know how EL James a middle aged mom of two from the London suburbs became the best selling author of all time with over a million books selling worldwide in less than a year and now a major motion picture Read this book to find out exactly how she did it Inside you ll learn how she wrote her first draft based on Twilight fan fiction and how she rewrote it as the book we know and love today the rough and tumble process of editing and how she assembled a group of dedicated fans herself that brought this smutty masterpiece to the rest of the world Inside these pages is the step by step process by which this middle aged British mother came up with the international best selling erotic romance series that has sold more copies than Harry Potter and Gone with the Wind combined NY Times best selling biographer Marc Shapiro uncovers the inspiration and secrets behind this writing sensation explaining how she did it with exclusive interviews with her editors and early fans Women, Violence and Postmillennial Romance Fiction Emma Roche, 2023-04-21 This book interrogates the significance of the revival and reformulation of the romance genre in the postmillennial period Emma Roche examines how six popular novels published between 2005 and 2015 Twilight Fifty Shades of Grey Gone Girl Sharp Objects and The Girl on the Train reanimate and modify recognisable tropes from the romance genre to reflect a neoliberal and postfeminist cultural climate As such Roche argues these novels function as crucial spaces for interrogating and challenging those contemporary gender ideologies Throughout the book Roche addresses and critiques several key attributes of neoliberal postfeminism including a pervasive emphasis on individualism and personal responsibility an insistent requirement for self monitoring self surveillance and bodywork the celebration of consumerism and its associated pleasures the prescription of mandatory optimism and suppressing one s negative emotions and the endorsement of choice as a primary marker of women s empowerment While much critical attention has been devoted to those attributes and their pernicious effects Roche argues that one crucial repercussion has been largely overlooked in contemporary cultural criticism how these ideologies function together to effectively sanction gender based violence Thus Roche exploits textual analysis to demonstrate the subtle ways in which neoliberal postfeminism can augment women s vulnerability to male violence Fifty Shades of Grey E. Grey E L James, 2015-06-18

E L James revisits the world of Fifty Shades with a deeper and darker take on the love story that has enthralled millions of readers around the globe. I've never felt this desire, this hunger before. It's a new feeling, new and shiny. I want so much from her, her trust, her obedience, her submission. I want her to be mine, but right now I'm hers. Christian Grey exercises control in all things; his world is neat, disciplined, and utterly empty until the day that Anastasia Steele falls into his office in a tangle of shapely limbs and tumbling brown hair. He tries to forget her, but instead is swept up in a storm of emotion he cannot comprehend and cannot resist. Unlike any woman he has known before, shy, unworldly Ana seems to see right through him, past the business prodigy and the penthouse lifestyle to Christian's cold, wounded heart. Will being with Ana dispel the horrors of his childhood that haunt Christian every night? Or will his dark sexual desires, his compulsion to control, and the self-loathing that fills his soul drive this girl away and destroy the fragile hope she offers him?
