1994). The authors note that the data are not enough to fully understand the impact of the environment on a person's health. As a result, they suggest that future research should focus on understanding the role of the environment in the development of disease. They also suggest that future research should focus on understanding the role of the environment in the development of disease. They also suggest that future research should focus on understanding the role of the environment in the development of disease.
