

Middle School Research Paper--Possible Topics (Paper copies handed out in Class)

Below are some questions to get you thinking about a possible topic for your research paper. You may decide to choose one of these topics, you may be led by one of these ideas to a related topic, or you may decide to choose a topic of your own that is not mentioned here. No matter what you choose, the following must be true about your topic:

1. It should be interesting to you! You will be spending a lot of time reading and writing about this topic, so pick something that you feel passionate about.
2. It can be discussed well in a 5-page typed research paper. Your topic should neither be too broad nor too limited.
3. It has research/expert support/data/facts from reliable sources to back up your general ideas.
4. It can be broken into three main parts (three body paragraphs) that develop your topic.
5. It allows you to be persuasive. Using research to support your ideas, you are taking a stand for or against some topic.
