Stephen King and the Uncanny Imaginary Erin Mercer, 2023-08-25 Offering an insightful examination of Stephen King's fiction this book utilises a psychoanalytical approach drawing on Freud's theory of the uncanny It demonstrates how entrenched King's work is in a literary tradition influenced by psychoanalytic theory as well as the ways that King evades and amends Freud Such an approach positions King's texts not simply as objects of interpretation that might yield latent meaning but as producers of meaning King can certainly be read through the lens of the uncanny but this book also aims to consider the uncanny through the lens of King Organised around specific elements of the uncanny that can be found in King's fiction this book explores the themes of death and the return of the dead monstrosity telepathy inanimate objects becoming menacingly animate and spooky children Popular texts are considered such as IT The Shining and Pet Sematary as well as less discussed work including The Institute The Regulators and Desperation The book's central argument is that King's uncanny motifs offer insightful commentary on what is repressed in contemporary culture and insist on the failure of scientific rationalism to explain the world King's uncanny imaginary rejects dualistic notions of an experiencing self in an inert physical world and insists that psychic experience is bound up with the environmental This book will be of interest to students and scholars of contemporary and popular literature gothic and horror studies and cultural studies

Grant Wood Barbara Haskell, 2018-01-01 The social and political climate in which Wood's art flourished bears certain striking similarities to America today as national identity and the tension between urban and rural areas reemerge as polarizing issues in a country facing the consequences of globalization and the technological revolution Wood portrayed the tension and alienation of contemporary experience By fusing meticulously observed reality with fables of childhood he crafted unsettling images of estrangement and apprehension that pictorially manifest the anxiety of modern life
