Abstract

These are all issues that have to be taken into account in the planning of a project. The first step is to identify the problem and the objectives of the project. The next step is to identify the stakeholders and the resources available. The third step is to develop a plan of action. The fourth step is to implement the plan. The fifth step is to monitor and evaluate the progress of the project. The sixth step is to report on the results of the project. The seventh step is to conclude the project. The eighth step is to reflect on the experience and learn from it. The ninth step is to share the results of the project with others. The tenth step is to celebrate the success of the project.
