My fortunes have been bright and I may say enviable even in this land by having the honour of being presented to your Majesty and to your Royal Highness and also invited to your palace. The conversation which I had the good fortune to have with your Royal Highness mingled with your detailed and minute knowledge of all the sad events of Afghanistan did not only cause sensations of surprise in me but was a source of proud gratification as showing that the conduct and zeal of public servants abroad whether English or foreigner are justly noticed and appreciated by so dignified a personage as your Royal Highness. Taking all the preceding points into consideration I am utterly at a loss how to show my heartfelt gratitude and in what manner to lay my unfeigned homage and devoted attachment at the feet of your gracious Majesty and your Royal Highness but by dedicating this work the unworthy endeavours of my feeble pen in a foreign language. If the honour so to dedicate this book is conferred upon me it will at once show to the subjects of your Majesty's Indian Empire that your Majesty knows how to appreciate their fidelity and devotion and will lead them to the lofty consideration and appreciation of their present English Sovereign in a more dignified manner than they or their predecessors had ever enjoyed.
