Middle School Decision Making Activities:

Decision-making Skills for Middle School Students Sherrel Bergmann, Gerald J. Rudman, 1985-01-01 Early adolescence is a time when students require adult assistance to become accurate and effective decision makers and problem solvers Because of the fragmented nature of society the family structure and the schooling process schools need to establish a nonthreatening environment in which students can discuss the issues related to growing up A decision making course in the middle school can become that program Results of the first six years of the decision making course at Elm Place Middle School in Highland Park Illinois are described illustrating a definite positive response on the part of all students The logistics for designing and implementing such a program in the middle school are discussed Teaching strategies projects and activities are outlined Sample activities are appended along with sample communications to parents and students JD

Social Decision Making/social Problem Solving for Middle School Students Maurice J. Elias, Linda Bruene Butler, 2005 School counseling staff as well as teachers and others running advisory or related groups will find this manual to be useful for helping students succeed in middle school At this critical point in their lives young adolescents can move in a positive and hopeful direction or they can enter into a negative downward spiral SDM SPS provides students with basic school survival skills and research based strategies for responsible decision making and problem solving SDM SPS uses a positive project oriented approach to help reduce school violence foster social and emotional intelligence improve academic effort and attention develop multicultural perspectives and prevent at risk students from giving up on school The authors present a thoroughly tested and effective approach for working with a broad spectrum of learners including those with emotional and behavioral disorders The manual includes numerous reproducible worksheets and assessment tools for tracking progress It provides strategies for supporting academic achievement improving media literacy skills encouraging parent involvement and implementing a school community service project BOOK JACKET Resources in Education
