Summarizing, Paraphrasing, and Retelling Emily Kissner, 2006 What s the big idea That s a question students are asked all the time in papers assessments and standardized writing tests of every sort Whether summarizing research sources or synopsisizing the plot of a two hundred page novel the ability to cut through extraneous details and describe the major themes and highlights of a text is key to success in school and in life Until now however summarization has been difficult to teach and learn but with Summarizing Paraphrasing and Retelling you ll discover a powerful and practical way to teach these vital skills Summarizing Paraphrasing and Retelling is a slim do it all guide that presents everything you need for teaching kids to separate out trivial items in their reading and then identify and communicate the main ideas and crucial details Emily Kissner breaks summarization down into smaller more manageable skills such as paraphrasing writing synopses retelling and restating the main idea illustrating what good summarization looks like and how to adjust your teaching to fit your students needs She offers not only methods for individual and group instruction but also handy reproducible resources such as assessment checklists forms for group work peer response sheets and sample passages for students to practice with Best of all Kissner s approach is a student centered alternative to more traditional skill and drill preparations Supported by research and tested in classrooms Summarizing Paraphrasing and Retelling gives you both big ideas for powerful teaching and important particulars to help you plan instruction and analyze your students progress What s the big idea behind teaching summarizing Read Summarizing Paraphrasing and Retelling and find out Resources in Education ,1994-05 Teaching Library Skills in Middle and High School Linda J. Garrett,JoAnne Moore,1993 This is a practical compendium of sample plans that correlates with Loertscher s resource based teaching Part I deals with library skills such as location and arrangement indexing systems study and research aids and reference tools Part II focuses on resource based instruction by general subject groups such as humanities social studies science and vocational education Strategies to Enhance Literacy and Learning in Middle School Content Area Classrooms Judith L. Irvin,Douglas R. Buehl,Barbara J. Radcliffe,2007 This is the only book on the market that focuses specifically on content area reading for the middle grades The third edition of this unique resource has been thoroughly updated to include the most current research in the field of Middle School Literacy Unlike most texts that ignore the middle school reader this book addresses the issues that affect middle school students and teachers and their experiences with literacy instruction Readable and teacher friendly Reading and the Middle School Student provides not only a strong research base but also practical teaching strategies for teachers in all of the content areas This book is designed to be a companion book to Rycik and Irvin Teaching Reading in the Middle Grades which focuses on reading in English Language arts classes This book focuses on content area reading instruction Take a Glimpse Inside the Third Edition A wealth of current student examples of strategies for middle grade students for instant use in the classroom New issues and trends facing adolescent literacy including policy and position statements and federal action New ELL emphasis in every chapter outlining specific strategies that can be used by middle school teachers with their English language learners Unique focus on classroom implementation of literacy integrated with content area instruction About Your Authors Judith L Irvin is currently a Professor at Florida State University and serves as the Executive Director of the National Literacy Project She has written and edited numerous books chapters and articles on adolescent literacy Douglas R Buehl is a reading specialist at Madison East High School and District Adolescent Literacy Support Teacher Madison Wisconsin He is Past President of the IRA Secondary Reading Interest Group and has published numerous articles on adolescent literacy Barbara J Radcliffe is an eighth grade reading language arts teacher at Fairview Middle School in Tallahassee Florida Barbara also teaches Teaching English in the Middle School and Teaching Reading in Secondary English at Florida State University Teaching Science in Elementary and Middle School Classrooms Joseph S. Krajcik,Charlene Lochbihler Czerniak,Carl F. Berger,2003 This text provides an overview of current science teaching practices for the elementary and middle grades The authors top scholars in the field of science education believe that all children should develop an in depth and meaningful understanding of scientific concepts and processes To achieve this the text utilizes the Project Based Approach Project based science stresses that science teaching should emphasize the active engagement of students in science rather than teachers telling students information Each chapter has several Portfolio Activity boxes that provide active learning experiences or reflections for the student Like the first edition the text includes numerous strategies in each chapter that help both new and experienced teachers understand how to teach science in an active and engaging manner The text also shows teachers how to implement the National Science Education Standards NSES and constructivist strategies A NSES marginal feature keys content to the standards Moreover this textbook helps teachers learn how to implement all of today s major reforms not just read about them

Teaching English in Middle and Secondary Schools Rhoda J. Maxwell, Mary Jordan Meiser, 2005 With continuing attention to constructivist theory and reflective practice this book offers a comprehensive realistic integrated approach to teaching English language arts to middle and secondary school learners In this fourth edition content has undergone major reorganization and chapters have been significantly rearranged Individual chapters on specific language arts are linked through a common focus on the reality of the language arts classroom the responsibilities of the language arts teacher and the means to meet these responsibilities through thoughtful reflective holistic teaching For current and pre service middle and secondary school English teachers
