Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on VA-HUD-Independent Agencies,1995      Security and Arms Control: A guide to national policymaking Edward A. Kolodziej,Patrick M. Morgan,1989 This book the first in a two volume set is organized around the idea that national and international security and arms control studies are interdisciplinary fields of study Together the volumes give form and substance to these emerging fields This first volume is concerned with broad analytical perspectives that are relevant to the security and arms control considerations of any national government subfield to assist more in depth analysis by researchers and Volume 1 is divided into four parts The first identifies those characteristics of the international system that condition the use of or the threat to use force It also explores those aspects of the system that prompt the need for ways to control violence and to discipline it to the national purpose Twelve functions of national strategic policy are covered in parts two and three A final section reviews ways that might be used to go beyond violence or threats in coping with human conflict Through the topics selected for inclusion the guide attempts to define the scope of security and arms control studies as a serious field of systematic inquiry It identifies major problems key concepts methods disciplinary approaches intellectual styles and data sources associated with the principal subfields of the discipline It critically reviews and evaluates the most important literature associated with each subfield to assist more in depth analysis by researchers and policymakers     Daily Report ,     Official War Publications Jerome Kear Wilcox,1942     Real Estate Record and Builders' Guide ,1918     PAIS Bulletin ,1918     Public Affairs Information Service Bulletin ,1918
