Sheng Chege J. Githiora, 2018 The city of Nairobi is a rich context for the study of sociolinguistic phenomena The coexistence of speakers of many different languages further differentiated by socio economic status age and ethnicity provide conditions for the development of a mixed code such as Sheng an urban variety of Kenyan Swahili which has morphed from a youth language into a vernacular of wider use Sheng is a unique phenomenon in the study of linguistic change and innovation in an African context a reflection of the ethnolinguistic diversity of Kenya and language asymmetry created by socio economic disparities It also provides a window into understanding the processes of urban multilingualism within the specific space structuring of Nairobi city This book is a detailed account of the rise and development of Sheng its linguistic structure social functions and possible future directions The author's analysis of its presence in newspapers TV radio and online makes it clear that Sheng functions as a particularly useful lens through which to explore contemporary Kenya Chege Githiora is Professor of Linguistics African Languages and Literatures at the University of London's School of Oriental and African Studies SOAS and is author of Afro Mexicans Discourse of race and identity in the African Diaspora Robot Intelligence Technology and Applications 2 Jong-Hwan Kim, Eric T. Matson, Hyun Myung, Peter Xu, Fakhri Karray, 2014-03-21 We are facing a new technological challenge on how to store and retrieve knowledge and manipulate intelligence for autonomous services by intelligent systems which should be capable of carrying out real world tasks autonomously To address this issue robot researchers have been developing intelligence technology InT for robots that think which is in the focus of this book The book covers all aspects of intelligence from perception at sensor level and reasoning at cognitive level to behavior planning at execution level for each low level segment of the machine It also presents the technologies for cognitive reasoning social interaction with humans behavior generation ability to cooperate with other robots ambience awareness and an artificial genome that can be passed on to other robots These technologies are to materialize cognitive intelligence social intelligence behavioral intelligence collective intelligence ambient intelligence and genetic intelligence The book aims at serving researchers and practitioners with a timely dissemination of the recent progress on robot intelligence technology and its applications based on a collection of papers presented at the 2nd International Conference on Robot Intelligence Technology and Applications RiTA held in Denver USA December 18-20 2013 BMT Abstracts, 1999 Discourses, Agency and Identity in Malaysia Zawawi Ibrahim, Gareth Richards, Victor T. King, 2021-10-23 This book seeks to break new ground both empirically and conceptually in examining discourses of identity formation and the agency of critical social practices in Malaysia Taking an inclusive cultural studies perspective it questions the ideological narrative of race and ethnicity that dominates explanations of conflicts and cleavages in the Malaysian context The contributions are organised in three broad themes Identities in Contestation Borders Complexities and Hybridities takes a range of empirical studies literary translation religion gender ethnicity indigeneity and sexual orientation to break down preconceived notions of fixed identities This then opens up an examination of Identities and Movements Agency and Alternative Discourses in which contributors deal with counter hegemonic social movements of anti racism young people environmentalism and independent publishing that explicitly seek to open up greater critical democratic space within the Malaysian polity The third section Identities and Narratives Culture and the Media then provides a close textual reading of some exemplars of new cultural and media practices found in oral testimonies popular music film radio programming and storytelling who have consciously created bodies of work that question the dominant national narrative This book is a valuable interdisciplinary work for advanced students and researchers interested in representations of identity and nationhood in Malaysia and for those with wider interests in the fields of critical cultural studies and discourse analysis Here is a fresh startling book to aid the task of unbinding the straitjackets of Malay Chinese and Indian with which colonialism bound Malaysia s plural inheritance and on which the postcolonial state continues to rely In it a panoply of unlikely identities Bajau liminality Kelabit philosophy Islamic feminism refugee hybridity and more finds expression and offers hope for liberation Rachel Leow University of Cambridge This book shakes the foundations of race thinking in Malaysian studies by expanding the range of cases perspectives and outcomes of identity It offers students of Malaysia an examination of identity and agency that is expansive critical and engaging and its interdisciplinary depth brings Malaysian studies into conversation with scholarship across the world Sumit Mandal University of Nottingham Malaysia This is a much needed work that helps us to take apart the colonial inherited categories of race which informed the notion of the plural society the idea of plurality without multiculturalism It complicates the picture of identity by bringing in religion gender indigeneity and sexual orientation and helps us to imagine what a truly multiculturalist Malaysia might look like Syed Farid Alatas National University of Singapore The Farmer's Weekly
