International Agreements between Non-State Actors as a Source of International Law Melissa Loja,2022-09-22 This book examines whether international agreements between non state actors can be identified as a source of international law using objective criteria It asks whether beyond Article 38 of the Statute of the International Court of Justice there is a system of rules processes beliefs or semantics by which these agreements can be objectively identified as a source of international law Departing from the more usual state centric analysis it adopts postmodern legal positivism as its analytical tool This allows for the reality that international law making takes place in subjective social landscapes To test the effectiveness of this approach it is applied to agreements between petroleum agencies and corporations which allow two or more states to exploit disputed resources across boundaries looking in particular at arrangements involving China Vietnam and the Philippines By so doing it illustrates an alternative way that states can manage disputes without having to resort to conflict It will appeal to both scholars and practitioners of public international law as well as civil servants

The Minjian Avant-Garde Chang Tan,2024-02-15 The Minjian Avant Garde studies how experimental artists in China mixed with brought changes to and let themselves be transformed by minjian the volatile and diverse public of the post Mao era Departing from the usual emphasis on art institutions global markets or artists communities Chang Tan proposes a new analytical framework in the theories of socially engaged art that stresses the critical agency of participants the affective functions of objects and the versatility of the artists in diverse sociopolitical spheres Drawing from hitherto untapped archival materials and interviews with the artists Tan challenges the views of Chinese artists as either dissidents or conformists to the regime and sees them as navigators and negotiators among diverse political discourses and interests She questions the fetishization of marginalized communities among practitioners of progressive art and politics arguing that the members of minjian are often more complex defiant and savvy than the elites would assume The Minjian Avant Garde critically assesses the rise of populism in both art and politics and show that minjian could constitute either a democratizing or a coercive force This book was published with generous support from the George Dewey and Mary J Krumrine Endowment From Migrant to Worker Michele Ford,2019-04-15 What happens when local unions begin to advocate for the rights of temporary migrant workers asks Michele Ford in her sweeping study of seven Asian countries Until recently unions in Hong Kong Japan Malaysia Singapore South Korea Taiwan and Thailand were uniformly hostile towards foreign workers but Ford deftly shows how times and attitudes have begun to change Now she argues NGOs and the Global Union Federations are encouraging local unions to represent and advocate for these peripheral workers and in some cases succeeding From Migrant to Worker builds our understanding of the role the international labor movement and local unions have had in developing a movement for migrant workers labor rights Ford examines the relationship between different kinds of labor movement actors and the constraints imposed on those actors by resource flows contingency and local context Her conclusions show that in countries Hong Kong Malaysia and Thailand where resource flows and local factors give the Global Union Federations more influence local unions have become much more engaged with migrant workers But in countries Japan and Taiwan for example where they have little effect there has been little progress While much has changed Ford forces us to see that labor migration in Asia is still fraught with complications and hardships and that local unions are not always able or willing to act

The book highlights the emergence of a new public administration paradigm grounded in theory innovation in public administration. Through theoretical reflections and case studies from Zimbabwe and South Africa, the chapter authors navigate institutional, technological and socio-political issues undergirding public sector innovation. The contributors provide perspectives on public governance examining innovations such as policy innovation labs, smart cities, 4IR, e-procurement and how technology adoption closes the digital divide and affects citizens' sense of gain. Leonardo Da Vinci, 1452-1519 Carmen Bambach, 2015. A vast catalog dedicated to Leonardo's entire oeuvre on the occasion of the largest exhibition realized on the genius symbol of Italian art and creativity during Milan Expo 2015. This volume represents a unique opportunity to admire and understand Leonardo's extraordinary complexity as an artist, painter and sketcher, and in part his work as a scientist and technologist. This volume is meant to illustrate through twelve sections some central themes in Leonardo's entire artistic and scientific career, underlining some constants in his vision as an artist and a scientist, as well as his interdisciplinary vocation and continuous intermingling of interests. Two final sections show the influence of Leonardo, the painter and art theorist, on the modern era and the creation of his legend centered on the Mona Lisa. The volume also includes masterpiece paintings by Leonardo, some of his original codes and over one hundred signed drawings, as well as a considerable number of artworks, drawings, manuscripts, sculptures and codes from major museums and libraries around the world and from private collections, with works by Antonello da Messina, Botticelli, Filippino Lippi, Paolo Uccello, Ghirlandaio, Verrocchio, Antonio and Piero del Pollaiuolo, Jan van Eyck and Bramante, just to name a few.
