Maya Angelou

Paragraph Answers:

1. The poem shows various images of aging. The poet says that the old people are least bothered about the social good manners. They always put on a silly smile on their face and twitch their lips. When the old people laugh their bellies jiggle like tambourines. The old people laugh loudly without having any worries about what other people think of them. While laughing saliva glistens on the corners of their mouth. Their heads wobble and their necks are brittle. When the old people laugh they laugh heartily because they know their suffering on this earth is soon coming to an end. They always show an attitude of easy going.
2. The poem sketches the physical and mental features of old people. They no longer practice decorum and hypocritical politeness. The poem tells about the old people celebrating their laughter. But towards the end of the poem, the poet moves on think about what they consider about death. Normally death is considered as something brutal waving people off the pleasures of life. But to the old people death is most welcome and they wait eagerly to embrace it. To the old people death is not cruel but dear to them as it releases them from the senility and pain of old age. Although death may accompany a momentary pain by the body, it leaves the soul into blissful state. According to the poet, it is like a promise given by the God ensuring a happy time after leaving this material world.
